Ike Accused Of Trying 'Cruel Hoax'

Liberation Promises For Soviet-Dominated People Hit By Adlai

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Wednesday night accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of trying to perpetuate "a cruel hoax" by holding out hope "for swift release of those enslaved behind the Iron Curtain."

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, said the general—his GOP opponent for the White House—made a "reckless proposal" to free Soviet-dominated people in Eastern Europe.

This was an allusion to Eisenhower's Aug. 25 statement in New York that the United States "can never rest—and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin—until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path."

Military Action Seen

Eisenhower's statement was interpreted in some quarters abroad as a pledge of military action. He has denied any such intent.

Democrats accused Eisenhower of proposing a war of liberation. He said later that what he had in mind should be accomplished by peaceful means.

An aerial bomb salute greeted the governor on his arrival here and a police-estimated 14,000 persons gave him a wild welcome as he entered Memorial Auditorium behind a blaring brass band.

Stevenson declared:

"When the Republican candidate first made his reckless proposal, the almost universal dismay and shock in two continents resulted in quick denials that has statements . . . had been interpreted correctly.

"I am all the more astonished, therefore, to find the general reiterating those strange liberal promises in advertisements released for use in three hundred foreign language newspapers."

Stevenson said "it is awfully easy to urge revolt" behind the Iron Curtann "when you are not yourself on the firing line—awfully easy and cynically irresponsible," Hitting at the Republican opposition, Stevenson said:

"Do-nothing, care nothing, know-nothing, mumbo-jumbo that has dominated the Old Guard's thoughts for generations is the surest way to drive a people to the extremes of Socialism, Fascism or Communism."

And, he said, "it is a tragedy

What's The Cost Of Trucking Fire To Fire Station?

Generally firemen go to the fire—Tuesday the fire came to Lincoln firemen.

A driver of a truck belonging to the Hinman Brothers Roofing Company spotted fire in some roofing materials he was carrying He was near the central fire station.

He drove the rest of the way and backed the truck to the east door of the station. Firemen came out, doused the blaze and the truck went on with only slight damage to its cargo.

Pen Inmate Pleads Guilty To Amended Charge Of Assault

James Parsons, 18, Red Cloud, pleaded guilty to the amended charge of assault with intent to do great bodily injury Wednesday. District Judge John L. Polk deferred sentence until the case had been investigated by the Adult Probation Officer.

Parsons, a penitentiary inmate, and four other inmates attacked prison guard Sim Ballard on June 28.

Charged originally with assault with intent to wound, maim, or kill, Parsons first pleaded not guilty. He changed his plea to guilty after the amended complaint was filed.

Deliberate Inflation Is Charged

Democratic Policy Imperils America, General Charges

TROY, N. Y. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Wednesday accused the Truman administration of deliberately adopting a policy of inflation that imperiled the nation like "a concealed minefield."

The Republican presidential nominee charged that the purpose was to win the next election by making the people think they had more money—though it was worth less.

Eisenhower fired the blast in a speech at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's Field House.

Managing Director H. L. Garren estimated that at least 10,000 attended.

His speech here followed a three-day New England whistle stop tour in which he slashed back at President Truman's charge that a Republican victory would lead to an economic crash.

He told cheering crowds in Hartford, Conn., Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass., Wednesday that prospects for both prosperity and peace would be better under a Republican administration.

"Not an Accident"

"The inflation we suffer is not an accident," Eisenhower declared at Troy. "It is a policy."

And, he added, in one of his stiffest attacks yet on the Democratic leaders:

"What they have done is to cheapen our money and history shows that this is always done by administrations that care more for the next election than for the next generation."

Eisenhower said that back in the Middle Ages officials tried to make fortunes by "coin clipping" and that outraged people sometimes punished them by "cutting off their hands."

He added: "We have a more humane and a more effective remedy for today's coin clippers—cutting them off from public office."

Eisenhower said currencies must be strengthened, inflation beaten and economic affairs set straight "or you will lose the battle with Communism without a gun being fired."

The general reiterated an assertion he had made previously that substantial savings were possible in the nation's military

Navy Told Watch For Politicians

Peterson Incident End Of Free Rides

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy will be on special guard not to give political figures free transportation on non-official business, Navy Secretary Dan Kimball indicated Wednesday night.

Kimball said he would "alert" Navy personnel to avoid instances such as that which involved Gov. Val Peterson of Nebraska Monday.

The Republican governor, an Air Force Reserve colonel, was in a plane piloted by State Budget Director Paul Wagner, a Naval reservist, when the plane crash-landed near Warrenton, Mo., without injury to either man. Peterson was enroute from Lincoln to a speaking date at Sparta, Ill.

In New York City, where he appeared at a dinner sponsored by supporters of Republican Presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower, Gov. Peterson commented:

"I approve and join cheerfully in any policy which is uniformly applied."

Kimball said no actual violation of Navy regulations was incurred, as both men were traveling as reservists rather than as state officeholders.

"However I question the propriety of such rides," he said, adding that "We've done our best to stay out of politics."

The Navy secretary said he had heard about—but not yet received—a telegram from Bernard Boyle, Nebraska National Democratic Committeeman, asking if the law allows "use of Navy planes for political purposes." Boyle also asked for an investigation and report on any such use in Nebraska.

However Kimball said the Navy did make a "hasty" investigation Wednesday, as the result of which he plans to issue his alert order Thursday.

An official Navy verison of the incident said:

"Col. Peterson's reserve status allowed him to fly aboard Navy planes. At the time of the flight the Navy didn't know that he was Governor of Nebraska and didn't transport him as such."

In Lincoln, Paul Wagner said he had "no comment" on the expected Navy "alert" order.

When asked whether he made the trip to get in training time or to transport Gov. Peterson to Sparta, Ill., Wagner said he was "getting in training time." "I make a lot of flights," he said, pointing out that he had 114 hours of flying time as a Naval reservist since last June.

Large Group Of Columbia Faculty To Support Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—A group of 715 Columbia University faculty and staff members came out Wednesday in support of Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate for President.

Previously 30 faculty members had gone on record for Eisenhower and 300 others had publicly backed his Democratic opponent, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson.

Eisenhower is on leave as President of Columbia University.

Political Broadcasts

Local radio and TV stations report the following political broadcasts are scheduled for tonight:

Wedemeyer Backing Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, who was a leading supporter of Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-O), for the Republican presidential nomination, Wednesday night endorsed the presidential candidacy of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Wedemeyer was the chairman of the pre-convention "National Citizens For Taft Committee." Wedemeyer issued a statement endorsing Gen. Eisenhower at a $100-a-plate Republican dinner attended by approximately 2,000 persons Wednesday night at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

On of the speakers at the dinner was Gov. Val Peterson of Nebraska.

War Jester, Owned, Ridden By Lincoln Men, Wins Trophy

KANSAS CITY (AP)—War Jester, ridden by Jim Boomer of Lincoln, Neb., defeated Kangaroo, ridden by Rocky Walker of Houston, Tex., to win the special United States Equestrian Team Trophy at the American Royal Horse Show Wednesday night.

In the jump off, War Jester covered the tricky 10-obstacle course in 37 seconds. The horse is owned by Lowell Boomer of Lincoln, while Kangaroo belongs to Mrs. Maurice Teague of Houston.

Gambling Kingpin Faces Cancellation Of Citizenship

New Yorker, Now In Atlanta Prison, Accused Of Illegally Procuring His Naturalization

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Justice Department Wednesday asked a New York Federal Court to cancel the citizenship of gambling kingpin Frank Costello.

Attorney General McGranery announced that two aids filed a petition in U. S. District Court in what is considered to be a prelude of efforts to deport Costello.

Costello is now serving an 18-month sentence in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary for refusing to testify before Senate crime probers.

The petition charged Costello with bootlegging; failing to pay income taxes; conspiring to bribe officers, agents and employees of the U. S. Coast Guard and federal prohibition agents; carrying a concealed weapon, lying to naturalization officers and attempts to violate numerous other state and federal statutes.

Costello

Sixty Days To Answer

In New York, U. S. Attorney Myles J. Lane said that Costello has 60 days in which to file his answer to the government complaint, filed with the Federal Court Clerk.

At the end of that time, the U. S. attorney files a note of issue and the case, just as any other civil action, is put on the court calendar. It comes to trial when it reaches the top of the list.

McGranery ordered denaturalization proceedings on Sept. 8, on the grounds that Costello had made false statements in connection with his application for citizenship. The suave New Yorker was born in Italy in 1891 and became a naturalized American in 1925.

The attorney general said that the naturalization was "illegally procured" and that his oath of allegiance was false and invalid since he took them "with mental reservations to violate and continue" to violate the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, the Prohibition Act, federal and state income tax laws and other federal and state laws.

The complaint charged that Costello "had not behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same," during the five years preceding his application for naturalization.

Moves Against Reds

McGranery announced he has started action to jail eight Communist leaders while deportation cases against them are pending, and to deport or denaturalize 10 more top Reds.

At the same time he ordered a new check on the health of William Z. Foster, Communist party secretary. Foster's plea that he was unable to stand trial had won him postponement of action on a charge of conspiring to advocate overthrow of the government by force. Eleven other top Reds indicted with Foster were convicted on that charge.

The eight whom the attorney general sought to put behind bars—he said that they should be held without bail—are already involved in deportation cases. The order to them was to surrender immediately or face action looking toward forfeiture of the bonds on which they are free. McGranery said the move was based on "current activity in Communist affairs" by the eight.

Independent Candidate

Korean War Lost Cause, Dell Claims

75 Hear Speech At NU Student Union

Political Independent Dwight Dell, candidate for the long term Senate seat, called the Korean war a lost cause "before we ever started it" Tuesday night at the Student Union.

Speaking before approximately 75 at the Student Union Dell said the U.S. has lost the war because "we backed a leader who did not have public support" in reference to South Korean President Syngman Rhee. He pointed out that while the United States backs land reform and other reforms in Korea and the rest of Asia, they support Rhee and Chaing kai Shek who do not believe in such reforms.

Mr. Dell

Dell wants to settle the conflict immediately by "exchanging all of our prisoners for all of theirs."

He said he could not understand how the U.S. could risk an untold number of casualities for 10,000 Communist prisoners held by the UN forces.

Foreign Aid Urged

The Beatrice candidate then voiced a demand for more foreign aid for peaceful purposes and a cut in the foreign defense spending.

Opposing universal military training, Dell said it is not true that the system would treat all alike. While seven men in the Army sit at an office or are behind the lines there is one being killed in Korea, he claimed.

Pouncing on the McCarran Immigration Act, Dell said the bill would set up detention camps "or concentration camps if you please" and would "make it more difficult for an immigrant to enter the country than for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle."

"We do not have an orderly limitation of perishable products," he said, and cited the need to work through the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

Defense Cited

In defense against an editorial in "The Daily Nebraskan" which said he was not qualified as a candidate, Dell pointed out a listing of U.S. senators by the American Political Science Association according to their legislative ability and intellect.

Senator Butler, he said, was rated 84th out of 96 senators. "Silent and absent much of the time," the independent candidate quoted a leaflet in which the listing was printed.

There would be no independent candidate for the long term Senate seat in the state, he said, if there had been good candidates.

In reply to questions after the address, Dell said he is not for an isolationist policy as "it is impossible."

The candidate said he was for a centralized agency under one man for the Missouri Valley resource program. And if an MVA has those qualifications, he said," I am for it."

Blaze Destroys Bus; None Hurt

PLATTSMOUTH (Lincoln Star Special)—An empty Greyhound bus en route from Nebraska City to Omaha was totally destroyed after it caught fire near the Murray corner late Wednesday night, according to Cass County Sheriff Tom Solomon.

The fire was believed caused by either a defect in the rear gears of the bus or by a blown-out tire.

Driver Marvin Custer of Omaha escaped uninjured. The Plattsmouth fire department was summoned to fight the blaze.

Speedy Action For Northeast Diagonal Urged

The City Planning Commission has recommended that the City Council take immediate steps toward construction of the proposed new northeast diagonal.

Specific steps recommended call for the Council to authorize the surveys necessary to determine the exact course and legal description of the diagonal and to then approve that course.

Secondly, the Council is called upon to proceed as rapidly as possible with the funds available to acquire the necessary right-of-way.

New Development

The Commission action was touched off by a proposed plat for a housing development in the area of 31st and Huntington, directly in the path of the new northeast diagonal.

Commission members pointed out that the longer the right-of-way acquistion is delayed, the more expensive the diagonal will become.

Generally, the northeast diagonal starts at 17th and Q, runs north on 17th to Holdrege and then in a northeasterly direction to Fremont.

The Commission has already made similar recommendations in regards to the southeast diagonal.

Grass Fires Keep Firemen Busy; Dry Weather Is Blamed

Dry fall weather has been keeping the Lincoln Fire Department busy lately.

Including Wednesday, Assistant Chief J. G. Schmidt reported, Lincoln firemen have answere 178 alarms in October alone—with nine more days to go. But only 82 alarms were answered in the same month last year.

September reports of 1951 and 1952 show the same trend, he said. In 1951 the department answered 86 alarms. This September it had 131 alarms.

The 1952 increase, he said, is principally in small grass fires caused by burning leaves getting out of hand. In a three-day period from Monday through Wednesday firemen answered 19 alarms, most of which were grass fires.

Some of these recent alarms, Schmidt said, apparently were caused by cigarettes, demonstrating the parched condition in Lincoln.

Journal-Star Open House To Feature Tour Of Building

A tour of the new Journal-Star Printing Co. building, will be held as a part of the open house to be celebrated at the plant on Sunday, Nov. 9.

The tour will include a complete showing of all housing and equipment in the basement and on the first and second floors. The plant showing will be open to the public from 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Another feature on that day will be the Sunday Journal-Star publication of a special section on the plant, its history, operation and personnel.

3,200 Expected At Teachers Meet Here As Pre-Convention Activities Are Held

Teachers attending the 32nd annual session of District One of the Nebraska State Education Association were ready to swing into the first day of their two-day meeting here Thursday after holding pre-convention activities Wednesday night.

Registration, which opened at 3:30 p.m. at the Lincoln Hotel, reached 1,300 Wednesday night. More than 3,200 are expected to attend. Sessions will open at 9:45 a.m. Thursday at the University Coliseum.

Main speakers Thursday will be Dr. S. A. Hamrin, professor of education at Northwestern University, and Dr. Clayton D. Ford, director of the School of Government, Principia College, Alton Ill. Ill.

Dr. Steven N. Watkins, Superintendent of Lincoln Public Schools, will give the welcoming speech.

Divisional and section meetings will begin at 2:30 p.m. Thursday.

"District One consistently has the largest registration of any district in Nebraska," E. D. Humann, Superintendent of Aurora Public Schools, said.

Humann, a member of the NSEA executive board, said Wednesday that approximiately 1,000 persons from outside the district will attend the District One sessions.

Wednesday night, the Nebraska Women's Educational Club got some inside information on the life of a foreign student.

Speaking at the dinner meeting at the University of Nebraska Student Union were Mrs. Martha W. Green, elementary school principal at Grand Island, and Margaret Motley, English teacher at Lincoln High School. Both pictured the life of the foreign student as hard work.

Miss Motley is an exchange teacher from Manchester, England, and Mrs. Green taught in Utrecht, Denmark, as an American exchange teacher.

Mrs. Irma Coombs, president of the Educational Club, presided at the dinner.

As for the differences in American and foreign schools, Miss Motley said students in England are expected "to do a terrific amount of homework—from one to six hours each night."

Mrs. Green said students in Denmark "take home mountains of homework each night." Elementary students, she said, take 16 subjects a week with only one choice as to what they study.

A student in Denmark, said Mrs. Green, may choose the A courses, which stress mathematics, or the B courses, which stress language.

Entrance to secondary schools in Denmark, said Mrs. Green, is made at the age of 12 following an entrance exam. At that age, she said, a student begins studying English, French, German and Danish and after the third year "can speak good English."

Miss Motley, who also stressed the busy life of a foreign student, said, "The true objective of education is to stimulate the mind."

A big difference in schools here and abroad, said Miss Motley, is the morning break for coffee.

She said students and staff have 15 minutes for coffee each morning in England.

Ike's 'Cheap Tactics' Security Threat—HST

Warns Eisenhower's Political Use Of Korea Casualty Lists Can Lead To National Disaster

From Press Dispatches

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—President Truman accused Gen. Eisenhower Wednesday of "cheap campaign tactics" which he charged are "a threat to our national security."

The President asserted Eisenhower is making "politics out of the casualty lists" from Korea and insisted Ike's actions can lead to national "disaster" in the struggle against Communist aggression.

The President denounced Eisenhower as "making false promises, and playing politics with the national morale" in the Korean conflict.

Can't Let Up

The President, in a nationwide television and radio broadcast, warned: "We can lose if we slacken our effort, if we appease, if we cut our defenses or trim our sails."

Mr. Truman said that Eisenhower's campaign of "slick promises . . . that he knows some undisclosed way to bring the Korean fighting to an end" are having this result: "To weaken our resolution—to endanger the common determination of the people in the struggle for peace. In a time of great international peril like this, such tactics are a threat to our national security."

The President said that Eisenhower, while admitting "that this country has no choice but to go to the defense of Korea, he is willing to make politics out of the casualty lists," and added:

"He has let the people think that he knows some undisclosed way to bring the Korean fighting to an end. But he does not tell us how."

Statements Harmful

"I have challenged him to let us know what this poposal is. But there has been no reply."

Mr. Truman said that, such utterances from a "lesser man" might not be "so serious"—but from the lips of one who has been regarded as a symbol of patriotism and international co-operation, these statements can do terrible harm.

"They can lead our country onto the path of half measurers and half-heartedness that means disaster for us and victory for Communism.

"The Republican candidate, with these cheap campaign tactics, was endangering all the work we had done for peace. As President of the United States, I could not tolerate this.

Making False Promises

"I felt that I had to meet the danger. I had to tell the people that the candidate was making false promises, and playing politics with the national morale."

The President added:

"I am glad to see that in recent days, in his talks in the Eastern States, the Republican candidate has sounded somewhat less like an isolationist. The press reports that in Massachusetts, he referred with approval, to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—those armies he commanded in Europe. But I do not know whether this change is due to inner conviction, or to a belief on his part that such things help to get votes in the east.

"As far as I am concerned, the damage is done. I cannot trust a man who has played this kind of game with the grave issues of our national security."

At his first stop of the day, Scranton, Acting Police Chief Richard Benyon estimated the crowd at 15,000.

Later, at Wilkes-Barre, Police Chief J. Russell Taylor estimated 12,000 persons heard the President.

A Bloomsburg, Pa., audience, estimated at 5,000 persons by Police Chief William B. Edgar, heard Truman charge that Eisenhower can't resist pressure from "Old Guard" Republicans and so is a poor risk for a people determined to avoid both depression and war.

Red Attack On Ridge Is Abandoned

Foe's Ranks Shattered; 1,245 Believed Killed

SEOUL (AP)—Chinese Communist troops, their ranks shattered by an estimated 1,245 killed, Wednesday broke off their onslaughts on Sniper Ridge which once carried them to the crest.

"We chopped up the better part of two battalions," said the South Korean officer who directed the stout defense of the strategic height on the Central Front.

After the last Chinese had pulled out to the north, South Korean soldiers counted 645 Communist corpses on the hill. Their officers estimated 600 other Chinese were killed in the battle that raged over the ridge from dusk Tuesday to Wednesday afternoon.

The Communists committed an estimated 2,000 men to one more furious attempt to take Sniper Ridge and its commanding pinnacle, Pinpoint Hill, captured by the South Koreans in last week's limited Allied offensive.

While Allied losses were not estimated, the Defense Department in Washington reported the highest weekly U. S. casualty toll since last July. Total reported for the week ended Oct. 17 was 963, including 133 killed. This brought U. S. casualties in the Korean war to 122,117.

There was little fighting elsewhere on the 155-mile front. Triangle Hill, near Sniper Ridge, was quiet. U. S. Seventh Division troops reported only that 10 Chinese who had been hiding in a cave in the hill had surrendered.

In the air, U. S. Sabrejets Wednesday probably destroyed one Communist MIG and damaged two others near the Yalu River boundary of Manchuria, the Fifth Air Force reported.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from Korean headquarters behind Sniper Ridge that Allied officers had expected another Red attack, but nothing had happened by midnight.

Ritchie Blasts At Griswold's Stand On Tideland Issue

NEBRASKA CITY — (Lincoln Star Special) — William Ritchie, Omaha Democratic candidate for the short term as U. S. Senator, speaking at a Democratic party blasted hard at his opponent, Dwight Griswold, on both current issues and on Griswold's past record.

Ritchie strongly renewed his pledge to fight for government control of tidelands oil, stating that "Nebraskans have an interest in this vast resource."

Griswold, Ritchie said, would give these resources away to the individual states.

Ritchie also charged that Griswold has been "very vague" on his farm program and asked, "Why should farmers in this state be misled as to what they can expect from their Senator"

He also lashed out at Griswold's record as governor of Nebraska, charging that Griswold "transferred a million dollars from the old age fund to the general fund," and that during Griswold's regime members of the State Board of Control accepted free gifts from the instituitons, as did Griswold.

NU 'Students For Stevenson' Group Has Organization Meet

The "Students for Stevenson" at the University of Nebraska elected Don Knutzen of Cedar Bluffs as chairman of the group at the first organizational meeting attended by more than 50 Wednesday night.

Clyde Moore, 3432 N, was elected vice chairman and Neala O'Dell, South Sioux City, was elected secretary at the Student Union meeting.

Assistant Professor of History A. T. Anderson of N. U., said that Stevenson deserves support because:

1. He is a man of proved administrative ability.

2. In his speeches and in the temperance of his approach to critical problems, he has demonstrated a kind of integrity which is rare in American political life today.

3. He is a man conscious of the real goal, and that is peace.

Anderson, who stated he was not speaking for the N. U. faculty but for himself, said that "all of these qualifications go with a deep consecration to the human welfare at home and abroad which symbolize the very best in the American dream."

Democratic County Chairman Joe Ginsburg outlined the activities that the organization could engage in.

He listed preparation of radio programs, distribution of hand bills and other material and taking polls as possible activities.

The group was also shown a letter from Presidential Candidate Stevenson that said:

"I am delighted to learn of the formation of a Students for Stevenson organization at the University of Nebraska.

"One of the most heartening aspects of this campaign for me has been the knowledge that independent minded people of all ages everywhere whose principal interest, like mine, is faithful public service and good government, have joined in supporting my candidacy.

"I want to wish you every success."

that the Old Guard has succeeded in doing what Hitler's best generals never could do: They have captured Gen. Eisenhower."

Shortly before arriving in Buffalo, Stevenson's campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, said the governor's speech in Cleveland, O., Thursday night, would be one of the most important of the campaign. It will deal with what Wyatt called Republican "smear tactics."

Stevenson came to Buffalo after a day of whistle-stop campaigning through northern Indiana and Ohio where he drew enthusiastic crowds that police estimated totaled about 36,800 persons.

Face Tough Fight

The governor made speeches along the way at South Bend and Elkhart in Indiana and at Toledo, Sandusky and Elyria in Ohio.

It was his second day out on a 4,221-mile tour of 12 states in the Midwest and East.

In Toledo, Stevenson solemnly told his audience jammed in Courthouse Square that America faced a long and tough fight against "a greta and powerful international conspiracy" of Communists.

"I offer you no soft counsel," he declared. "If that is what you want, I tell you straight out not to vote for me."

Police Sgt. Ronald Ludwikowski estimated the Toledo crowd at 15,000 persons.

At Elkhart, the first egg-throwing incident of the campaign occurred. Someone in the trainside crowd hurled an egg that splattered the canopy over the rear platform of the governor's car as he was concluding his speech.

It struck far above Stevenson's head and he gave no indication he noticed it.

The egg thrower was identified as Miss Iola Bankhart of Oakley, Mich. Miss Bankhart, released after questioning, told police: "I just wanted to throw an egg and I'll throw one at Eisenhower, too."

An estimated 10,000 persons turned out in South Bend, Ind., the first stop on the second day of the governor's campaign trip through the Midwest and into the East.

Another 6,000 were on hand in the drill hall at Notre Dame University where Stevenson spoke. As he left the hall, a student yelled:

"Would you fire Acheson?" meaning Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Stevenson replied: "I'll answer that after the election."

spending and that "we can have more defense for less money."

He proposed the "knocking down of the administration idol of cheap money, getting unified action from our domestic agencies and slicing fat out of our federal budget" as important steps needed to toughen the economy.

"It is clear that the major attack has to be made on a wider front than just money and credit policies," he said.

Eisenhower, said, the administration's "playing with inflation, confused many of its own economists."

"A number of these men, angry or baffled — among them, Edwin Nourse and Marriner Eccles—resigned," the general said.

Eisenhower and his wife were greeted at the Albany railroad station by Gov. and Mrs. Dewey. The four rode together the 10 blocks to the executive mansion, where they dined. A crowd of 5,000 greeted Eisenhower at the station and along the route to the mansion.

Eisenhower started off the day in New York City with his first campaign visit to Harlem, where introductory speakers hailed him and his wife, Mamie, as "Mr. and Mrs. America," then flew to Hartford, Conn., for this third successive day of New England campaigning.

Some police estimated the crowd stretching in front of and to either side of the Hartford Times building at 50,000 and said it was larger than that drawn by President Truman at the same place last Thursday.

Raecke Unable To Attend Funeral; Lauds Matthews

Walter Raecke, Democratic candidate for governor, in Lincoln Wednesday to keep a speaking engagement before the Lincoln Board or Realtors, expressed regret that he was unable to attend the funeral in Omaha of Francis Matthews, ambassador to Ireland, because of promises he had made to appear elsewhere at the same time.

He explained that he hestitated to make promises because so often developments made him want to change plans as in the case of the unexpected death of Matthews.

"In his death, America has lost an honorable and distinguished citizen," Raecke said. "By his ability, energy devotion to duty and high ideals, he carved a career in private and public life which any American can be proud of. As secretary of the navy and ambassador to Ireland, he climaxed his carreer with dignity and efficient service to his country."

TOKYO (AP)—A collection of 100 rare Japanese art objects, including some national treasures, will be exhibited in five American cities next year.

Kyodo News Agency said an agreement between the U. S. and Japanese governments called for exhibition of the art objects at the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C., followed by showings in New York, Boston, Chicago and Seattle until 1954.

Immediate Debate On Korea Voted

. . Soviet Proposal Beaten

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The powerful U. N. Political Committee Wednesday night approved top billing for and immediate debate on Korea. The vote was 51 in favor, five Soviet bloc opposed and four countries abstaining.

The committee also voted to give the No. 2 spot on its work list to the Tunisia case and the third place to the dispute over Morocco.

A strong Soviet bloc drive to put ahead of all other business an omnibus Polish resolution on Korea and other subjects was beaten down overwhelmingly, 44 to 5.

The United States, Britain and France put up a solid front for immediate debate on Korea, although it is known among the delegations that Britain and France would prefer to withhold any definite decisions on Korea until after the U. S. presidential elections.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson is ready to lay before the committee Thursday a detailed report on the entire armistice negotiations at Panmunjom.

Officials Cautious On New Polio Drug Use

More Study Of Results Is Needed

Although some measures of success has been obtained in using Gamma Globulin to fight polio, Nebraska doctors and Polio Foundation officials were being cautious Wednesday night because of the scarcity of the drug, its temporary effect and the need for further study of its use.

Results of tests on 55,000 U. S. children, announced Wednesday, showed that Gamma Globulin prevents much paralysis from polio.

Dr. Harold S. Morgan, president of the Nebraska State and Lancaster County Medical Association said that the results will have to be carefully studied on state, local and national levels before any recommendation as to its use is made.

However, he said that the report indicates that experimentation with Gamma Globulin has progressed to the point where a doctor can use it at individual discretion, bearing in mind the scarcity of the product and the fact that it gives only temporary protection.

No Lincoln people were involved in the tests at Provo, Utah, Houston, Tex., and Sioux City, Ia. At Sioux City, some Dakota County, Neb., children took part in the experiment.

Dr. Morgan said there has been some sporadic use of Gamma Globulin in Lincoln, but not enough to form an opinion as to its effectiveness.

Dr. Morgan also announced that he has appointed a statewide committee from the State Medical Association to study the "tremendous" problem of rehabilitating present polio patients.

Clinton Belknap, state director for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said Gamma Globulin "might be an adjunct in the search for . . . a vaccine."

He pointed to a letter sent to county polio chapters from national headquarters which said:

"While the first reports (on the use of Gamma Globulin) are decidedly encouraging, the immunity it gives is only temporary . . . Coupled with the scarce supply of Gamma Globulin, this indicates that we must expect to have polio next summer . . ."

'Human Blood' Medicine Prevents Polio Paralysis

From Press Dispatches

CLEVELAND — Some children have been saved from polio paralysis by shots of medicine made from human blood, scientists announced Wednesday.

"It is the first means of protecting man against paralytic polio," Dr. William McD. Hammon, University of Pittsburgh epidemiologist, reported to the American Public Health Association.

The shots are Gamma Globulin-G.G. for short-containing antibodies against all three types of polio virus. The protection is temprorary, lasting five weeks or better.

Not Final Answer

G.G. is not a vaccine, not the full, final answer to polio.

The news was hailed by medical and health leaders as "highly encouraging," and offering a practical method now of reducing polio's victims. The number of persons afflicted by the disease this year is expected to run to a record 60,000.

Now, many agencies must cooperate to obtain G.G. from perhaps as much as two million pints of blood or plasma to battle polio next summer, said Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. One pint of blood supplies enough G.G. for one average-sized protective shot.

A special drive for blood donations might be called.

The G.G. would be used only in polio-stricken areas to save some children and put out the fire of an epidemic.

There couldn't possibly be enough G.G. to give it to all the nation's children, O'Connor said. Priorities would govern its use.

The G.G. tests this summer and last were the greatest human field trials in medical history. They cost one million dollars in March of Dimes funds.

The findings were based on tests involving 55,000 children during polio epidemics in Provo, Utah; Sioux City, Ia., and Houston, Tex.

Half the children, Dr. Hammon explained, received G.G. injections. The other 50 per cent, a control group, were injected with a gelatin that had no medical value.

The incidence of polio in the two groups was compared.

This, the scientist said, is what happened:

Ninety of the 55,000 children developed polio some time after receiving G.G. or gelatin injections.

But 64 of the polio cases occurred in the gelatin-treated group, compared with only 26 among children who received G.G.

And 13 of the 26 G.G.-treated youngsters who did get polio recovered completely within 30 days, against no full recoveries in that period among the gelatin-treated victims.

'Run' Could End Current Supply

WARM SPRINGS, Ga. (INS) —Dr. Robert L. Bennett, of the Warm Springs Polio Hospital, declared Wednesday that the newly announced effectiveness of Gamma Globulin as a temporary polio immunizer might exhaust current supplies.

A "run on the Gamma Globulin bank" was presented as a possibility by the doctor, who is also a professor at the Emory University Hospital.

Dr. Bennett said that GG, a "blood fraction" or derivitive, presently is in short supply. The substance is recognized for its value in combating the effects of measles.

Brave Iowan Saves Child From Cistern

CEDAR RAPIDS, Neb. (INS)— Mrs. Albert Stasshelm was being hailed as a heroine today at Cedar Rapids for rescuing a small child from a 16-foot cistern.

Mrs. Stasshelm, although she could not swim, slid down a pipe into the water-filled cistern and handed 22-month-old Wayne Carlsen to safety.

The boy was already unconscious when Mrs. Stasshelm reached him but was revived at a doctor's office.

The mishap occurred at the Carlsen home. Mrs. Stasshelm was visiting at another home nearby.

Planes Don't Bother Deer

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—The roar of airplane engines is music to the ears of 40 deer. The herd roams the runways of the local airport in search of grass. A truck tries to scatter them before a deer-hopping plane lands.

Residents of the surrounding game preserve want to lift hunting bans until there are 40 less deer blocking traffic.

Ben T. Meckel Is Named Director Of Vets' Education

Mr. Meckel

The appointment of Ben T. Meckel of Lincoln to the position of director of veterans education in the State Department of Public Instruction was announced Wednesday by State Superintendent R. B. Decker.

Meckel replaces Otto G. Ruff, recently appointed superintnedent of the Scottsbluff schools.

Meckel, 44, has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Carleton college, Northfield, Minnesota, and a Master's degree from Colorado State College at Greeley. He served as a Chaplain in the Army for three and a half years during World War II.

Since 1946 he has been chief of the training facilities section of the vocational rehabilitation and education division of the Veterans' Administration.

30 Turkey Hens Stolen From Farm Near Waverly

Thieves stole 30 turkey hens, valued at $200, from the Floyd Bevans farm near Waverly early Wednesday morning.

Bevans had reported to the Lancaster County Sheriff's office previously when he discovered his turkeys all tied up in sacks—ready for delivery.

Evidently, the same turkey thieves were successful on their second attempt, according to Sheriff Merle Karnopp.

"AT THE CROSSROADS OF LINCOLN"

Water Comes First

The first need of any American city is an adequate, dependable supply of water. In Lincoln the lack of vigilance provided a painful lesson unexpectedly last summer when a community which thought it had taken care of its water needs for all time faced up with a program of rationing—restricted use of water in a time of searing temperatures.

A capable committee of citizens, headed by Byron Dunn, serving in the role of an advisory committee to the council has completed a painstaking study of the step necessary to give a growing community an adequate water development program tailored to fill the needs for the next 15 years.

It will cost money, a lot of it.

The estimated financial burden of Lincoln's water plan aggregates $10,450,000. Of this amount, pressing present water needs will call for an outlay of $8,500,000—work to start immediately and to be finished by 1957. A second stage involving an expenditure of $1,950,000 can be undertaken more leisurely and can be financed from the earnings of the water department without the issuance of bonds. What the program involves, then, is a bonded debt of $8,500,000 against the water plant—a debt which if properly amortized likewise can be taken care of wholly or substantially from earnings over a 40-year period.

Neglect has caught up with us. During these years of community growth, a gratifying increase in population, an appealing expansion of the residential sections, a substantial growth in business and industrial areas, we should have been planning and doing some of this very necessary development. It would seem that the blame belongs squarely on the doorstep of Director Erickson. Nor do we believe the people of Lincoln will want to entrust a 10-million-dollar development to one man. We need a utility board.

There has not been a great deal of vision at the City Hall. Either Mr. Erickson has too much on his hands or he lacks the imagination so essential to anticipating water needs. But water is one necessity over which people cannot quarrel. An adequate supply is essential to health, to sanitation, to security against fire loss, to the well-being of every community. And we have a warning at this time that we may not always be favored with these well-spaced rains which throughout more than 10 years have tended to obscure Lincoln's water needs.

The advisory committee has done its work well and now the matter rests upon the shoulders of the council.

It should not procrastinate.

Steel Vs. Oil

When it comes to courage, Gov. Adlai Stevenson can stake claim to it. In Texas last week he did a very brave thing. He flung his defiance to the powerful oil interests of Texas, Louisiana and California in the battle for the fabled riches of the undeveloped Tidelands (offshore) oil.

★

It may cost him the electoral votes of all three states or a part of them. But in refusing to yield to the Texas oil men to whom it would have been so easy to address soft, conciliatory language, Gov. Stevenson stood his ground, more power to him! And the logic which fortifies his position merits careful attention from the American people. Gov. Stevenson said he agreed with the Supreme Court of the United States that the offshore oil must be the possession of the whole people. The court, he added, should be as respected on this issue as on its decision in the steel strike. It is impossible, he concluded, to back the court one day and undermine it the next. Not impossible, perhaps, for certain people, including the Republican candidate for President and back of that candidate, the big oil interests of Texas, for that is exactly what they are doing. The same people who rejoiced when the high court by a divided decision ruled that the Chief Executive exceeded his constitutional authority in seizing the steel industry are in the ludicrous position of calling upon Congress to overrule the Supreme Court in quieting title to Tidelands oil in the states.

★

Figuratively one day they sing the praises of the Supreme Court because it held seizure of the steel plants unconstitutional. The next day they finger their noses at the Supreme Court because it held that the offshore oil, conservatively estimated to be worth 40 billion dollars, belonged to all the people of the United States and not merely the people of Texas, Louisiana and California. They can't have it both ways. To be logical, they should display the same respect for the court's ruling on oil that they expressed for the court's ruling on steel.

★

There is an element of hypocrisy in lauding the court one day, undermining it the next. The justification given by those who want to grab off these oil riches is that the court was divided in its three decisions relating to ownership of the offshore oil. The court's decision in the steel case found it divided 6 to 3, with Frankfurter, Douglas, Jackson, Black, Burton and Clark constituting the majority—Chief Justice Vinson, and Justices Reed and Minton, the minority. The Tidelands ruling in Louisiana's case was a unanimous finding—6 to 0—with two members of the court not participating in the hearings or the findings. The California Tidelands ruling was a 6-to-2 decision—less divided than in the steel strike. Only in the case of Texas, where the issue of the state's treaty at the time of its admission to the Union was raised, was the ruling close—4 to 3—with two members not sitting in on the arguments or the findings.

★

In other circumstances, the battle for offshore oil could determine a presidential election. Involved is oil estimated most conservatively to be worth 40 billion dollars—and believed by some to run as high as 80 billions. It is not surprising that the Texas oil interests are turning heaven and earth to elect Eisenhower. It was to be anticipated that Louisiana would give him a colorful welcome—and that men with unlimited purses would see to it that hundreds of thousands of people in Los Angeles and Long Beach would turn out to fill the air with their shouts. This is no penny-ante game. It is for big stakes. Once the states acquire title to the offshore oil, then the giants in the oil industry will move in to obtain leases. These oil-wise men know (a) that it is much easier to control leases through a state than through Uncle Sam; (b) that state regulation of oil development is ineffective and meaningless generally.

★

Nothing Gov. Stevenson has done reflects greater credit upon him than the stand he has taken in the Tidelands battle. Only a man of rare courage, a man of the deepest devotion to what he believes to be the common good, would invite the loss of the electoral votes of three states—two of them, California and Texas, representing huge blocs. It will be for the years to tell the story—a classic story—but in the telling, Gov. Stevenson's attempt to protect the American people will present one of the brightest notes.

★

And what is Nebraska's interest—or how much money do the public schools in this state stand to lose—in the event that the offshore oil goes back to only three of the 48 states? These schools of Nebraska pinched for money today stand to lose a king's ransom. Back to three states is the cry. It is a 40 billion dollar gift to Texas, California and Louisiana.

Morse For Attorney General

Now it develops that late last December, months before President Truman ousted former Attorney General Howard McGrath, the President offered the attorney generalship to Republican Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon. Sen. Morse declined.

He would have been heaven-sent for that job—a solid lawyer—impeccable reputation—a zeal for good government. It is not difficult to understand why Sen. Morse refused to relinquish his seat in the United States Senate—the seat to which he had just been re-elected the year before after a savage battle with the conservatives within his own party in Oregon. On the basis of an objective view of the opportunity for public service, he could conclude that his contribution as a senator could be infinitely more effective than a brief 12 months in the post of Attorney General during which it would be necessary for him to devote much of his time to familiarizing himself with the details of the office.

At the same time, Sen. Morse makes known his reason for bolting Gen. Eisenhower. Morse was one of the earliest supporters of the Republican candidate. "They told me," Morse said in a public statement, "that Eisenhower returned to New York after campaigning in Indiana with Jenner, more inclined to give Jenner a punch in the nose than his endorsement; that was how he really felt." Sen. Morse recalled the Jenner incident as an example of the "political hypocrisy" that inspired him to bolt the Republican ticket and support Gov. Stevenson.

We assume that a charitable public may be inclined to make generous allowance for political expediencies, but in the case of Jenner, McCarthy, Taft, Dirksen and a few others, what Gen. Eisenhower is doing is to defeat himself if he is successful in winning the office. In the practical field of American politics, it is this group, not Gen. Eisenhower, who will win and who will shape American policy.

A 1952 Ode

A reader suggests that the little piece recently quoted by Gov. Stevenson should go down alongside the famous "Martin, Barton and Fish" episode when the late President Roosevelt taunted his opponents in a presidential campaign. Entitled "Ode to the Old Guard," Gov. Stevenson recited the following verse:

"Nixon, Dirksen and Taft one night
Sailed off in a lead canoe,
Freighted with cargoes of woe and fright
Just like in '32.

'Oh what are you hunting as if you would bust?'
The old moon asked the three.
'We are hunting for issues all covered with dust—
And national policies heavy with rust,
To win this election it's clear that we must,'
Said Nixon and Dirksen and Taft."

Reason Returns

What has come to be known as the "year of the oath" has reached a heartening conclusion—or at least it is hoped that the last has been heard of it.

The University of California's special loyalty oath has been outlawed by the California Supreme Court. The decision was unanimous. Eighteen professors who had refused to sign the oath imposed by the board of regents—and who lost their teaching posts as a result—were ordered reinstated. Thus does justice reign after a hysterical, disgusting orgy on the Pacific Coast.

The University instructors are now required to sign the regular loyalty oath required of all employees of the state of California, and that is as it should be.

Ike Advisers Seek Aid Of Gerald L. K. Smith

WASHINGTON — An Eisenhower committee has just taken an interesting step to appease Gerald L. K. Smith.

Smith is the organizer and chief spark plug of the Christian Nationalist Party and has nominated Gen. MacArthur for President with State Sen. Jack Tenny of California for vice president. His chief financial angel is Judge George W. Armstrong of Texas, whose donation to Jefferson College in Mississippi was rebuffed amid nationwide publicity.

A few days ago, a committee speaking for Gen Eisenhower called on Smith and urged him to take the Christian Nationalist Party out of the presidential race. Smith has built up quite a following in Southern California, also some following in Texas, and his party is on the ballot in Washington, Missouri and elsewhere.

In states where the Democratic-Republican race may be close, the Christian Nationalists could hold the balance of power. Therefore, Smith was urged to withdraw the party's name from the ballot.

As an inducement, Smith was told that if he would withdraw, Gen. Eisenhower would take the initiative in calling personally on Gen. MacArthur.

The significance of this gesture is that no less than ex-President Herbert Hoover himself has been trying to get Eisenhower and MacArthur together, but so far has been unable to persuade Ike to go see Mac. Eisenhower is willing to get together with his former commander, but he isn't willing to go to the Waldorf Tower where MacArthur lives. And MacArthur in turn won't go to see him.

However, according to the Eisenhower committee that called on Smith, Ike will go now to see Mac—if Gerald L. K. will drop his political party.

NOTE—Though MacArthur's name is not on the ballot in California, it's legal to write it in, and a lot of MacArthur admirers plan to do so.

FRANK STEVE MITCHELL

Young Steve Mitchell, new chairman of the Democratic National Committee, took down his hair at an off-the-record meeting at the Hotel Statler here recently and told how he really thought the Stevenson campaign was going.

He admitted among other things, that Stevenson's campaign trips had received lukewarm crowds until St. Louis, at which time the committee spent $12,000 to get things organized, just as the Eisenhower people have been doing for some time.

He also admitted that his and Wilson Wyatt's statement of a bandwagon rush to Stevenson in part was wishful thinking. Instead he said, the election was neither won nor lost.

Discussing political developments in different parts of the country, the refreshingly frank Mitchell said:

That Sen. Lyndon Johnson phoned him to complain that businessmen were threatening to get even with him when he ran in 1954 if he helped Stevenson in '52.

That Gov. Lausche of Ohio, the alleged Democrat, must realize that Stevenson's chances had picked up, because he now occasionally mentioned Stevenson's name. Before, Lausche's contribution to Stevenson had been minus nothing.

That the Democrats hadn't emphasized the real issues on Tidelands oil; they should have made northern and inland states realize that they would lose by the Eisenhower plan giving the Tidelands oil to three states only.

The Democratic chairman was critical of Sen. S. Smathers and Holland of Florida, who, he said, were carefully ducking. He said Stevenson faced a buzz-saw in the bigger cities of Texas.

He told how he had Gov. Stevenson telephone Jesse Jones, the ex-RFC director, following which Jesse had printed a fairly warm editorial in his Houston Chronicle. Most Democratic congressmen in Texas are vacationing, Mitchell admitted, but he warned that this would be remembered when the time came to pass out the patronage.

The worst problem he faced as Democratic chairman, Mitchell said, was that local Democratic organizations had disintegrated in the last 20 years, and had to be built up again. Two exceptions he noted were Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Regarding Sen. Nixon, Mitchell made this comment: "I think by election day he will be the lowest man on any political totem pole you ever saw."

EDUCATION AND IKE

The student newspaper at Columbia University may have come out officially against their president-on-leave, but the faculty is mixed. Some are ardently for Eisenhower, some ardently opposed.

A leader of the latter group is the dean of journalism, Carl Ackerman, who administers the Pulitzer Prize awards and has helped to train thousands of newsmen. Writing to Stevenson headquarters recently, Dean Ackerman enclosed a check.

"Education," he wrote, "has a vital stake in this campaign. The election of Gen. Eisenhower will set an example for every student from the kindergarten to the graduate level that cramming is a laudable substitute for serious study. The Republican candidate has substituted final hour briefings for knowledge. That is why he makes so many contradictory statements on political issues. One day he is briefed by Lodge and Dewey; the next day by Taft and Cromwell; then by McCarthy and Jenner. Who will brief him in the White House? Who will teach him how?—for the next four years?

Ohio Poll Figures Show Indecision In Key State

CLEVELAND—Gov. Stevenson is putting on a strenuous last-minute push in this doubtful and perhaps key state. President Truman, too, is making a last-minute visit to Ohio in the hope that enough fence-sitters can be persuaded to come down on the Democratic side.

It is further evidence of the cloudy and uncertain state of mind of up to half of all potential voters that no one is inclined to say very flatly which way Ohio with its 25 electoral votes will go. No one, that is, outside the professional cheering sections, where the effort is to build up a psychology of victory. Wilson Wyatt, the Stevenson campaign manager, predicts not only that the Democrats will carry Ohio but that it will be an electoral landslide for Adlai.

Those who look at the Ohio picture more or less objectively are skeptical of both claims. They guess, with emphasis on "guess," that Ohio will go for Gen. Eisenhower. In part, this is based on what the straw polls are showing.

Cleveland is in Cuyahoga County. It contains a concentration of industry and industrial workers. But it also contains large suburban areas where the vote is heavily Republican.

Both in 1948 and '44 the race in this state was extraordinarily close. Four years ago the vote was 1,452,791 for President Truman to 1,445,684 for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. In '44, with a total vote of 3,150,000, Dewey won by about 12,000 votes. Again it seems on the surface to be that kind of toss-up.

But those who look beneath the surface think perhaps they see some significant signs. The Cleveland Press is attempting to determine what is behind the vast imponderable of the record registration on the polling books in virtually every city. The eligible votes in Cuyahoga County add up to a record-breaking 770,000.

In the city of Cleveland, where most of the industrial workers live, the sample poll of newly registered voters taken by the press shows Stevenson 58.4 per cent and Eisenhower 41.6. These percentages are fairly close to those shown in polls of voters already on the registration books.

At first glance that would seem heavily weighted in favor of the Democrats. But the city percentages are offset by the percentages in the suburbs, which show about 61 per cent for Eisenhower. This is slightly less than Dewey's percentage in suburbia.

In 1948 Truman got 64.3 per cent of the total vote in the city proper. The belief is that Stevenson will have to do at least as well if he offsets an expected heavy Republican vote from the small towns and possibly also from the farms. The guessers speculate on a total vote of 700,000 in Cuyahoga County, divided 400,000 for Stevenson to 300,000 for Ike. Four years ago in this county Truman got 191,626 votes to Dewey's 105,669. In the view of Richard L. Maher, politics editor of The Press, Stevenson's reduced percentage would not be sufficient to carry Ohio. And there are those bold enough to add that if Cuyahoga is in fact a weathervane, then it would indicate the Democrats cannot win the election.

Stevenson this time has some factors in his favor that were absent in '48. Gov. Frank Lausche, a Democrat who shows 68.2 per cent in the press poll to 31.8 per cent for Charles P. Taft, is giving more open and direct support to this presidential candidate than he did for either Truman or FDR. Lausche may be able to transfer some of his great personal popularity to his friend and fellow Democrat, the governor of Illinois.

☆ ☆ ☆

On the Senate side, the contest is greatly enlivened by the presence of Mike DiSalle as the Democratic candidate opposing the reelection of Sen. John Bricker. DiSalle is like an impish matador making bold and infuriating passes at a very handsome and distinguished bull. The bull breathes fire, snorts Communism. But the matador goes right on with radio and television "clockathons" defying the prestige and popularity of John Bricker who, with his imposing mien and silver hair, looks like the statue of a senator.

In the poll of the city of Cleveland, DiSalle, too, is running ahead of Stevenson, although behind Lausche. DiSalle's percentage among newly registered voters is 60.3.

Four years ago, in state after state, able candidates for governor and the Senate succeeded in pulling Truman along with them for victory. Without these vote-getters, it can be established, he would not have won re-election. Most curious of all in this curious situation is the possibility that popular and/or able candidates could mean electoral votes for Stevenson in key states. In a half dozen states the pulling power of local Democratic favorites is a factor not to be discounted. The wandering observer would merely echo that ancient cliche—anything can happen.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Perhaps A Founder Of A New Hunting Breed

By JEFF WITHROW
Star Staff Writer

An 8-weeks-old puppy named Spook may be one of the founding fathers of a new breed of Nebraska hunting dogs.

Spook, pal and companion to Valerie Ranne, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ranne, 2506 N, is a forgotten dog as far as kennel clubs and their long-named canine honorees are concerned.

But in years to come, club champions may look on Spook's breed with envy.

The black pup is part Labrador and part Cocker Spaniel, combining the hunting characteristics of both breeds in a short-haired dog for efficiency in Nebraska fields and lakes.

☆ ☆ ☆

While waiting for his chance to show prowess in plowing through cockle-burr-infested corn fields, Spook is subject to the playful heckling of his youthful mistress and responding like a full-fledged house dog.

In fact, Spook leads a double life—outdoor dog and house dog.

His Labrador background gives him enough endurance and pride to sleep outside, in comfort, in his own 2-foot-high dog house which is lined with an old Navy seabag.

Spook hasn't so much as whimpered since moving into his bungalow beside the front porch steps. And as for spending an evening in the Ranne's front room—Spook can take it or leave it.

☆ ☆ ☆

And he has a few merits from his Cocker Spaniel background. Like the best of Cockers, Spook can take a roughing up from Miss Ranne without a growl and he can lay quietly like a well-trained house dog while visitors pat his head and pull his ears.

Ranne got Spook from a farmer in north central Nebraska who had crossed the favorite hunting dogs for an all-around hunter. Other dogs from the same parents are alleged to be the best of duck retrievers with endurance like a polar bear in cold water.

In the field the dogs are said to be able to find and flush a pheasant with a nose likened to a Geiger counter.

The People Speak

The Reynolds Injury

Manhattan, Kan.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I am dropping this note in regard to the article by Sports Editor Norris Anderson which appeared in The Lincoln Star after the Kansas State-Nebraska game. Mr. Anderson mentioned in the article that it looked to him like Bobby Reynolds was roughed up and piled on in his last play of college football.

I was sorry to see this, because no one felt worse about Reynolds getting injured than the K-State team and coaches. Bob is one boy in the conference we have had a lot of respect for and admire as a fine athlete and gentleman. We felt bad about him being injured in our game without having people think that we roughed him up.

I would be glad to go through the pictures of the game with Mr. Anderson any time so that he can see that there was definitely nothing unusual on the play that Reynolds was injured on. He was hit fair and square and was still digging when he was knocked down on the five-yard line. I am sure that Bill Glassford would tell you the same thing.

Here's hoping that Reynolds will be able to get back in harness before the season is over. He is a great athlete.

BILL MEEK
Head Football Coach,
Kansas State College

Editor's Note: What Star Sports Editor Anderson wrote was this: "Reynolds was hit hard and piled." There was no inference intended that the piling had been intentional.

Transfusion Needed

Broken Bow, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Once again this fall Nebraska will add to her glorious record of anti-progress by voting Republican. Good old Nebraska, with her obsolete rural telephone systems, her roads and schools 40 years behind the times, brought out of the darkness of kerosene lamps and lanterns so recently it hasn't yet opened her eyes wide enough to see the advancement going on all around her, will regard with suspicion and distrust every benefit she has received at the hands of a progressive national administration and with a "what's good enough for me is good enough for my kids" attitude, will again vote Republican.

Our children will still trudge two miles to a one-room, one-horse school without a sign of modern equipment, to a teacher who is paid $240 a month for teaching three pupils, and the people will still howl about taxes.

Dear old "White Spot," how anemic must you get before you cry out for a transfusion of new blood to bring you to a consciousness that we are living in 1952?

Ike On War

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The statement Harry Truman made the other day that the election of Gen. Eisenhower might bring a global war is perfectly ridiculous. I am sure Ike hates war and loves peace as much as Mr. Truman does. I have heard Ike say that one of the main issues in the campaign is to prevent another world war. The American people, both Republicans and Democrats, hate war.

GOP Record

Avoca, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is a timely warning to remember the 12 long and lean years of GOP leadership, its sparse doings that proved to be both unresourceful and harmful, and its climax by Herbert Hoover who said if he were elected President, there would be two cars in every garage, a chicken in every dinner pail. However, after being elected, he allowed panic conditions of every description to materialize and go unabated during his administration at a time when life-sustaining products were in abundance. In an attempt to avoid criticism, he called it a depression and said the country's troubles were brought about by forces unavoidable which would have to run their course. And then he tossed his hat into the ring for another try at the presidency, but the people overwhelmingly chose a common-sense, humanitarian-minded man, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Within a fortnight, he changed unprecedented chaos into an attitude of cheerfulness and confidence and the nation's entire economic structure was revived. Vastly improved conditions have been in evidence ever since and will continue to be so long as the spirit of the Roosevelt New Deal remains unmolested. Judging from all indications, the real issue opposing the party in power at the coming national election is personal gain for a few, and a nationwide effort to return a political party to power that made history for itself in the 'twenties and early 'thirties.

Power Rate Talk Slated For Friday

Preliminary discussions of a new power rate schedule will be held Friday at Columbus when representatives of the League of Nebraska Municipalities meet with officials of the Nebraska Public Power System.

Discussions will center on the proposal by the League to receive group billing from NPPS on all power purchased by the eight League members buying from the System. The League members want group billing so their purchases can be made in the lower or cheaper end of the System's sliding rate scale.

Among those Lincoln officials likely to attend the Friday meeting are Mayor Victor E. Anderson, City Attorney C. Russell Mattson, City Engineer D. L. Erickson, Charles E. Beals, League executive-secretary and treasurer, and League Attorney Robert Perry.

No Decisions

No decisions are expected to be reached. Official action would call first for the League to submit a written request to the System for group billing.

If that request were turned down as is expected, the League would then probably take action leading to a court suit to determine whether or not the League is entitled to the billing asked. Such League action would have to be approved first by the city councils or village boards of all eight cities involved.

Following the Friday meeting, the League's Group Billing Committee will meet the latter part of the next week, probably Thursday, at Holdrege. While that meeting will also be informal, the ground work might be laid there for the probable court action to follow.

Lincoln's present contract with NPPS expires Jan. 1. The group billing dispute is expected to be either settled or in the courts by that time. No interruption in the Lincoln supply is anticipated.

Rotary Members See Wesleyan Production

Rotary club members were entertained at their noon luncheon with a Nebraska Wesleyan Plainsmen Theater production.

The production consisted of two companies of eight members each presenting a singing and dancing variety show entitled "The Green Boys." The Rotary show marked the 25th presentation by the Wesleyan group in the past 20 days.

Storage Lack Cutting Library Service

No Solution Offered By Plan Group

Members of the City Library Board received little in the way of a solution to the space problem they presented to the City Planning Commission.

Library Director Charles Dalrymple had presented the Board's case to the Commission as one of dire needs in the immediate future for more storage space. Present space shortages, Dalrymple said, are resulting in the curtailment or limitation of services expected from the library.

The Commission's plan from Harland Bartholomew & Associates of St. Louis recommends a new libary on the southeast corner of 15th and N. What, asked Dalrymple, should be the Board's next step in realizing the erection of the building?

It was pointed out by Commission Chairman E. J. Faulkner that before anything can be done with the city plan, some method of financing must be established. Then, Faulkner said, needed improvements must be undertaken on a priority basis.

Faulkner reasoned that it would be at least three years before a permanent solution to the Board's problem could be realized. He suggested the acquisition of storage facilities outside the properties of the Library Board.

Suit Filed Seeks $81,451 Damages From Doll Factory

Roy A. Bitler, 2425 Colonial Drive, is suing Terri Lee, Inc., a Lincoln doll factory, for $81,451.60, according to a petition filed Wednesday in District Court.

Bitler claims the amount is due him in the form of damages for unpaid salary, bonuses, expenses, and damage to his reputation when he was discharged as plant manager of the doll factory.

The petition charges that Bitler was hired on Oct. 24, 1951, as plant manager and that he signed a contract to serve in that position for three years at a salary of $150 per week. It is alleged that he was to receive a $5,000 bonus each year providing that the sales of that year were not less than the year previous to his employment by the factory.

Bitler, the petition claims, was to receive an additional bonus is sales exceeded $500,000 any year.

The plant manager was discharged on Sept. 15.

His dismissal, according to the petition, was without cause. Bitler also charges that sales will exceed the $500,000 mark this year.

Funeral Services For Miley Miller To Be Held Friday

Funeral services for Miley Glen Miller, 49, of 1745 No. 29th, former rodeo performer who died Wednesday, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Umbergers. Capt. Walter Kennedy of the Salvation Army will officiate, and Sr. Maj. Madge Hojeman of Red Wing, Minn., will sing.

Mr. Miller

During his youth, Mr. Miller entertained the Nebraska and Kansas rodeo circuits with his rope-trick specialties. Born near Beatrice, he had lived in Lincoln three years.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Ada J. Miller of Lincoln, and a sister, Capt. Tula V. A. Miller, with the Salvation Army at Red Wing, Minn.

Graveside services will be held at 4 p.m. at Evergreen Cemetery, Beatrice.

School Land Bid Case Transcript Of Appeal Is Filed With Court

John and Roy D. Raitt filed transcript of appeal with the state Supreme Court from denial of their petition to mandamus the State Board of Educational lands and funds to accept their bid on state school land.

District Judge Harry A. Spencer of Lancaster County dismissed their petition holding that one cannot mandamus an action by a public board unless "abuse of discretion" is shown. He held that the evidence showed a greater return to the trust in the hands of the board for the schools of the state could be obtained by rejecting that Raitt bid of $500.

Later, the court issued a restraining order against the board to keep it from leasing the land pending the appeal to the Supreme Court.

'Reds Torture U.S. Fliers Into False Admissions Of Germ War Acts'

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Air Force Association said Wednesday the Communists have tortured two U. S. Air Force fliers into making false confessions that they took part in germ warfare.

The fliers are Lt. John S. Quinn, 30, Altadena, Calif., and Lt. Kenneth L. Enoch, 27, Youngstown, O.

They have been prisoners of the Communists since their B-26 bomber failed to return from a night mission in North Korea last Jan. 13.

An article in Air Force Magazine, published by the association, an organization of Air Force members and veterans, said Quinn and Enoch are "innocent victims of one of history's most infamous hoaxes."

Its author, Air Force Col. John J. Driscoll, said information he gathered in Hong Kong, Indochina, India and elsewhere in the Far East pointed to the use by the Communists of the same type of "brain-washing" as was employed against Cardinal Mindszenty, American businessman Robert Vogeler and many others to obtain dramatic "confessions."

"The basis of this mental torture is incredibly prolonged questioning. . . combined with lack of sleep, threats to friends or relatives, drugs and in many cases, hypnosis, to create a state of fatigue and apprehension that borders on, and often produces, a complete mental collapse," Driscoll said.

Liquor License Holders Reprimanded By State

Reprimands were announced Wednesday by the state liquor commission to Annabel E. Denker, Waterloo, and Lavern Kracl Schuyler, for sale of liquor to minors and not using due diligence in determining their ages. Hearings were held on Oct. 2.

The appeal of James A. Lymber, North Platte from denial of a permit to change locations was dismissed.

Hearings on protests filed against granting an outside beer license to Frank Spehar, Waterloo, was set for Oct. 27.

Citation for revocation of the license of Conway, Inc., Omaha, was set for Oct. 30. The licensee is charged with refilling containers with liquor.

U.S. Casualty Toll Is 122,117

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States forces in Korea reported 963 casualties during the week ended last Friday, the Defense Department announced Wednesday. It was the highest weekly total since July 2, when 985 casualties were reported.

American casualties in the United Nations' campaign against Chinese and North Korean Reds have now mounted to 122,117. Fighting began June 27, 1950.

Here is the Defense Department's weekly summary, based on notifications to the next of kin through Oct. 17:

	Increase	New Total
Killed	133	19,184
Wounded	794	90,114
Missing	36	12,819
Total	963	122,117

Battle deaths, including those killed in action, 1,986 fatally wounded and 207 known dead who were originally reported missing, now total 21,377.

Following is a breakdown of casualties by services:

	Increase	New Total
Army	566	96,244
Navy	25	1,662
Air Force	2	1,296
Marines	380	22,915

Youth Is Fined $25 For Possessing Liquor

One can of beer in possession of four under-age students resulted in the conviction of only one on charge of possession of alcoholic liquor by a minor before Municipal Judge John Jacobson.

Te 17-year-old youth was fined $25 after pleading guilty to the charge. The three others with him in the car, all 18 years old, were released on recommendation of the county attorney. Officer Gail Gade caught the four while they were parked in a car at 15th and R Sts.

The three who were dismissed chipped in to help pay the $25 fine for the 17-year-old youth who plead guilty.

ARMOUR PLANT WORKERS STRIKE AT SIOUX CITY

SIOUX CITY, Ia. (AP) — CIO packinghouse workers at the Armour and Co. plant here went out on strike Wednesday.

The walkout was called at 1:30 p.m. by Chairman Lloyd Sands of Armour Local 34 of the United Packinghouse Workers of America. The Sioux City plant employs about 1,800, most of whom were affected.

Sands said the strike was called as a result of a "bog-down of new contract negotiations."

Further plans of the union will be decided by its executive board, he said.

The full walkout followed a temporary stoppage in the pickle department of the plant where 50 employees left their jobs Tuesday.

U.S. Heiress To Millions To Wed Scot Nobleman

LONDON (AP) — Virginia Fortune Ryan, petite heiress to American millions, will become the bride of a dashing Scottish nobleman, Lord Ogilvy, in London's society wedding of the year Thursday.

Queen Elizabeth II, Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret head the 900 guests for the ceremony in the British Empire's most fashionable church, St. Margaret's, Westminster, right alongside grey old Westminster Abbey.

Lord Ogilvy, 26, is the son and heir of the Earl of Airlie. His family is famed in song and ballad. A tall youth, he has been an escort of Princess Margaret at times.

Miss Ryan, 19, is a granddaughter of the late Otto Kahn, millionaire banker and philanthropist, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barry Ryan of New York and Newport, R.I.

Midland Inaugurates Its Ninth President

Two Faculty Men Cited For Service

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

FREMONT, Neb.—Dr. Paul William Dieckman was officially inaugurated as the ninth president of Midland College Wednesday night with the procession and ritual of the Lutheran Church and in the presence of leading church dignatraies.

The ceremony, held before a large crowd in the municipal auditorium here, clamaxed a day of college activities which included the presentation of honors to two longtime members of the college faculty and staff.

The two were Dr. Christian K. Burkholder, who has been on the Midland faculty since 1919 and is still teaching, and Dr. F. E. Wood who retired Oct. 15 after serving 22 years as Midland's business manager. The recognition service took place at a morning convocation on the Midland campus.

Dr. Dieckman was chosen for the Midland post to succeed the former president Dr. William P. Hieronymous who resigned to accept a teaching position in New York July 1.

In his speech of acceptance Dr. Dieckman declared that religion should be the core of any educational program if that programs is to have "lasting significance or value in the life of any individual or group."

"The religious impulse," the new president said, "has been evident at all time in the field of education. It has provided the incentive, the support and development of education for at least three centuries in this country."

In conclusion, Dr. Dieckman said he was highly satisfied with his observance of the students and faculty of Midland College and added: "It is after all only the college Christians who can keep a college Christian."

College Goals Told

Rev. Charles B. Foelsch, president of the Pacific Lutheran Seminary, delivered the inaugural address earlier in which he discussed the goals toward which Midland College should strive.

Greetings to Dr. Dieckman, the ninth president of the college, were delivered from the United Lutheran Church of America by Rev. Gould Wickey, executive secretary of the church's board of education.

The religious ceremony was begun with an academic procession into the auditorium with Prof. J. Emory Ackerman acting as marshal. The official investment of the new president was made by Rev. Arthur H. Pinkall, and the benediction was delivered by Rev. Lorin John Wolff of Lincoln, president of the Midwest Synod of the church.

The Midland A Capella choir provided the music of salutation at the inaugural.

Rally Will Mark Luther Day Event

SEWARD, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—The annual Luther Day celebration of Circuits 2 and 3 of the Southern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Church Missouri synod, will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday with a special rally service in the gymnasium of Concordia Teachers College here.

Rev. A. C. Burroughs, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church of Omaha and pastoral advisor of the Nebraska district Walther League, will be guest speaker.

A joint choir of children of all Lutheran schools in this area under the direction of Herman Schmieding of Seward, and the York Lutheran Choral Union, under the direction of Paul E. Bussert of Greshham, will sing at the service.

Matthews Eulogized As Credit To Country, Good Family Man

OMAHA (INS)—Francis P. Matthews, ambassador to Ireland and former secretary of the Navy, was buried in Omaha's Calvary Cemetery Tuesday as top government and Naval officials, Irish representatives, relatives and friends stood by in mourning.

The flag-draped casket was borne to the grave by uniformed sailors as a detachment of Marines fired a rifle salute and a bugler blew taps from a nearby hillside.

A solemn requiem mass, attended by more than a thousand persons who crowded into St Cecilia's Cathedral, preceded the graveside military rites.

Archbishop Gerald T. Bergan of Omaha officiated at the mass and eulogized Matthews as a devoted Catholic, a good family man and a credit to his country.

The 65-year-old diplomat died Saturday in Omaha after suffering a heart attack. He had been ambassador to Ireland since last year and before that served two years as Navy secretary.

Dignitaries Attend

Among the mourners were his wife, son and five daughters; Assistant Navy Secretary for Air John F. Floberg; Hugh McCann, Charge D'affaires of the Irish Embassy representing the Irish Ambassador; Rear Admiral R. L. Denniston, representing President Truman; and Rear Admiral C. C. Hartman, representing the chief of Naval operations, Admiral W. M. Fechteler.

Also present were hundreds of persons who had known Matthews as an attorney, prominent church layman and business executive.

Archbishop Bergan characterized Matthews as "Omaha's ambassador of good will to the world at large" and praised his work in Ireland, "that friendly, peaceful land."

"He was a man to humble circumstances," the archibishop said, "who moved successfully up the ladder of life. The honors that came to him were humbly accepted and humbly worn."

Lutheran Pastors, Teachers To Meet

SEWARD, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—A joint conference of pastors and teachers of the Lincoln, Seward and York Circuits of the Southern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri synod, will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church here Friday.

Business sessions of the group which will be organized at the meeting, will extend from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The members of the Young Women's League of St. John's Church, will serve the noon meal.

Action Deferred On Regulations For Transports

KEARNEY, Neb. (AP)—The Nebraska Volunteer Firemen's Association Wednesday deferred action on a petition from the Omaha Volunteer Fire Department suggesting regulations for gasoline transports.

The resolutions committee said the State Fire Marshal's office is already working on a set of regulations. A spokesman for the Fire Marshal's office said the office was taking into consideration most of the controls asked by the Omaha petition with the exception of a proposal to fix a speed limit of 40 miles per hour and halting of their operation on Sunday.

He said it was questionable if the state should try to impose such restrictions, adding that speed limits can be set by individual towns and cities.

Other resolutions were courtesy resolutions.

Harold McComb, Ex-Geodetic Survey Worker, Is Dead

WILSONVILLE, Neb. — Word has been received here of the death of Harold E. McComb, 66, former chief of the geomagnetism branch division of geophysics, coast and geodetic survey and a ex-Nebraskan.

He died at George Washington University Hospital in Washington D. C., after a brief illness.

A native of Wilsonville, he was educated at the University of Nebraska where he received both his B. S. and M. A. degrees. He was a World War I veteran.

While serving with the Coast and Geodetic Survey, he was in charge of the Honolulu Magnetic Observatory for more than three and a half years.

Sibert Will Assist Rural Youth Leader

Frank J. Sibert, 23, has been named Assistant State Rural Youth leader.

The College of Agriculture animal husbandry major hails from Inavale, Neb. A member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity, he graduated last June. Before taking his present post, he was Assistant County Agent in Dawson County for three months.

Frank Sibert

Sibert succeeds Paul Kemling, who moved to a farm in Hamilton County. Bruce Simon of Lincoln filled the position temporarily this summer.

Short Course In Farm Income Tax Scheduled

A farm income tax short course, an annual school, will be held at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, Dec. 11-13.

The course is designed for country bankers, lawyers, realtors, farm managers and veterans instructors and others who help farmers with their tax returns.

Pilger Church Marks Its 45th Anniversary

PILGER, Neb.—Six charter members of St. Peter's Lutheran Church were honored here at the church's 45th anniversary services. Those honored were Theodore Asch, Mrs. Julius Sprieck, Mrs. Maria Melcher, Mrs. Claus Rathman, Mrs. Otto Rustemeyer and Mrs. Carl Maas.

The membership of the church has increased from 13 families in 1907 to 130 families in 1952. Rev. Ralph Ritzen serves as church pastor.

10% Hike Indicated In Nebraska Vote Registration

State Fails To Follow U.S. Trend

Reports on vote registration figures on Nebraska cities requiring registration show the Republicans—as expected—leading the Democrats in number. But no conclusive evidence was turned up in the check made by The Star to show that Nebraska voters are following the national trend of greatly increased registration this election year.

According to Nebraska election laws, all voters in cities over 7,000 population must register to vote. The incomplete reports from city election offices show interest in the election has increased total registration by about 10 per cent in most cities.

This flood of new registrants has caused a qualified voter increase which ranges from more than 50 per cent in Scottsbluff since the primary to about five per cent in Omaha.

Following is the registration figures to date from the 13 Nebraska cities:

Nebraska City: Registrants to Oct. 16, 1,546 Democrat and 1,877 Republican with 32 non-political. This constitutes a drop of about 300 for the Democrats and about 200 for the Republicans since 1948.

Fremont: Total to date, 8,900 with 750 new registrants since August.

Kearney: Democrats, 2,288, Republicans 3,127, non political, 31.

McCook: Total to date, 3,806 with 489 registering since primary and representing a slight increase over two years ago.

Scottsbluff: Democrats 2,691, Republicans, 3,731 and 127 non-political. More than 1,500 have registered since primary.

North Platte: Total, 7,829 with 1,063 new registrants, since primary. Figure about same as in 1948.

Grand Island: Democrats, 5,578, Republicans, 6,632, non political, 144. Constitutes increase of about 1,000 in each major party since primary.

Omaha: Total figure, 134,000, with 7,280 registering since primary.

Norfolk: Total 5,693 with 580 registrations since Sept. 1.

Columbus: Total figure, 5,000 with breakdown not yet complete.

Beatrice: Total about 6,000 with increase of 350 to 400 since primary. Registration continues heavy.

Hastings: Estimated registration by election, 14,000, with an increase of about 2,000 over 1948. Break-down, Democrats, 4,715, Republicans, 5,860 and independents, 138.

Lincoln: Number increased 366 Wednesday to a total of 53,129. No break-down as to political parties, but Wednesday registration was divided between 175 Republicans, 169, Democrats and 22 non political.

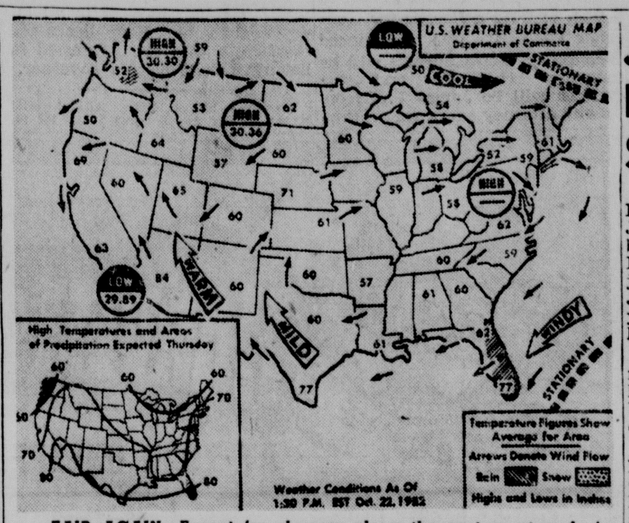
Burned-Out Firms Seek New Quarters

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia. (INS)—Owners of a garage and warehouse, destroyed in a half-million dollar fire in Council Bluffs, are seeking new quarters.

The Continental-Keller Furniture Company was without storage space following the loss of its three-story warehouse, and the Blue Star Food Products, Inc., was without garage facilities.

Both firms were seeking temporary locations.

Fire Chief Waldo Merrill said he believes the fire originated in the garage fuel pump, but Blue Star officials said they thought the blaze began in the ceiling of the garage.



FAIR AGAIN—Except for showers along the east coast and in southern Florida and along the northwest Pacific coast the weather throughout the nation Thursday will be generally fair. It will be warmer throughout the eastern half of the nation. (AP Wirephoto Map Wednesday Night.)

Judge Dunbar Dies; Services Set For Friday

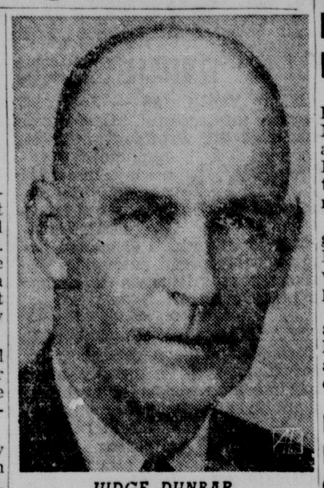
NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (AP)—Funeral services for District Judge Thomas E. Dunbar, 60, will be held Friday morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church here. The judge of the second Nebraska Judicial district for the last eight years died in a Nebraska City hospital.

He had been ill for several months and for more than a year had been unable to serve on the bench. He was a candidate for re-election.

Judge Dunbar is survived by his widow; three sons, Jean, an Omaha architect; Thomas Jr., Falls City court reporter; John, an attorney serving at present as a Navy lieutenant at Great Lakes, Ill., and a daughter, Ruth, a student at Clark College, Dubuque, Ia.

A native of Council Bluffs, Ia., Judge Dunbar received his law degree from Creighton University in 1917 and practiced first in Omaha and then in Newcastle, Wyo., moving to Nebraska City in 1922.

He was a former president of the Otoe County Bar Association and a member of the Nebraska Bar Association. He also was a past exalted ruler of the Elks.



JUDGE DUNBAR

Judge Dunbar was opposed for re-election by John Dierks, an attorney in Nebraska City, a petition candidate, and like Judge Dunbar, a Republican.

MRS. ARMINTA M. PARIS

Half Of Oil Stations Involved In Omaha's Gasoline Price War

OMAHA (INS)—A gasoline price war which got under way in Omaha last week had spread to about half the city's service stations Wednesday.

Regular gasoline was selling as low as 24.4 cents a gallon, about two and a half cents under the normal price.

The price cutting generally involved stations located on main streets and highway routes and included the retailers for the major oil distributors on one hand and large independents on the other.

Editors See Stevenson Gains In 5 Of 11 West Coast-Mountain States

Newsmen Doubt HST Has Helped

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP) —Editors and political correspondents in the Mountain-West Coast region believe gains by Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson in five of 11 states have tightened the presidential race in the last six weeks.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, listed early in September as leading in 10 of the 11 states, now is considered ahead in eight of the eleven.

The combined view of newsmen who took part in a second, mid-October survey of political prospects for The Associated Press is that Democratic nominee Stevenson now might get Utah and Washington by a hairline margin if the election were held at this time.

These are the first apparent switches to turn up in the survey. The two states were regarded as leaning slightly toward Republican candidate Eisenhower around Labor Day.

Very Much In Doubt

In Utah and Washington, as in many other states, margins favoring one candidate or the other are so wispy as to leave the outcome on Nov. 4, very much in doubt. Silent voters—people who have taken no position or who prefer not to discuss their stand—could be the decisive factor in the election.

Other elements are at work, too, in the political cross currents sweeping through the West:

For the most part, editors say the rocking, socking campaign, President Truman has carried to the whistle stops has backfired against Stevenson. A few think the President got in telling blows on Eisenhower.

Most newsmen say Eisenhower got a boost from the airing of the financial affairs of his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California. Only a couple called the affair a "fiasco" or anything of that sort.

Stevenson is regarded as scoring with his own campaigning, particularly with attempts to persuade the people that Eisenhower has surrendered the GOP reins to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Editors in Oregon, New Mexico, Colorado, Washington and Idaho mention the Eisenhower-Taft tie as hurting the general.

In the main, the same old issues stand out—peace, prosperity, time for a change, and all of them lumped together with corruption, Communism and Korea.

The way newsmen see things in the West, California, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, Nevada and Oregon probably would go Republican if this were election day. Those six states have 54 of the 79 electoral votes for the whole area.

Oregon is believed safe for the GOP regardless of the formal endorsement given Stevenson by the state's independent Republican senator, Wayne Morse.

Washington, Utah Doubtful

Classed as doubtful but with some advantage for Eisenhower are New Mexico and Idaho with four electoral votes each.

Arizona and her four votes remain probably Democratic, while the 13 votes of Washington and Utah are regarded as doubtful but inclined at the moment toward Stevenson.

In addition to stronger showings in Utah and Washington, Stevenson seems to have picked up power in Wyoming, Idaho and Montana in recent weeks. Editors think Eisenhower shows more momentum in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Oregon and Nevada.

In California they believe the gain has been enough to change the state from doubtful to probably Republican at this point.

DEMOCRATIC VIEWPOINT

Walter Raecke, Central City, former speaker of the legislature and Democratic candidate for governor, told the Lincoln Board of Realtors Wednesday noon that he has taken his campaign "seriously."

Raecke Sees MoreGrowth

"I feel that anyone elected should consider it a full-time job and give full-time service," he said explaining that with budget making, seeking to eradicate duplication in services and to give efficient and economical government there is work enough to keep a governor busy.

Raecke pointed out that the soil and water are the two greatest resources of the state and that it is necessary to conserve them. To offset the dwindling population because of mechanization of farms he suggested greater efforts to build the state industrially.

He pointed out that this was not a job of government but would have to be accomplished by local chambers of commerce or other groups of live citizens. However, he said the state Resources Division can and should aid and supplement this work.

Nebraska has something to offer industry, he explained in its good labor record and cheap power from its water resources. Raecke told of visiting Tennessee to study its industrial growth.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (INS) —Stanley D. Long, Democratic candidate for the senate, long term, Wednesday night repeated a statement made by Republican Congressman Howard Buffett of Omaha that Gen. Eisenhower "sent uncounted hundreds of thousands of German civilians into Russia for slave labor."

Long Makes Slave Charge

In a speech at a Nebraska City political rally, Long quoted this excerpt from a statement made by Congressman Buffet on May 8, 1952:

"If the Republicans nominate Eisenhower, the New Dealers will continue to control America. Because they would reveal how Eisenhower, months after the war ended, approved and signed an order that sent uncounted hundreds of thousands of German civilians into Russia for slave labor. This one action alone, duly exposed, would lose enough normal Republican votes to insure Republican defeat in November. This is only one of the hidden blots on the Eisenhower record. Either way, the Republican party would be helpless."

NORTH PLATTE — A group of North Platte businessmen and members of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors will visit schools here Nov. 13 to watch education in action. A breakfast in the junior high cafeteria will start the day's activities.

REPUBLICAN VIEWPOINT

NEW YORK (AP) — John W. Davis, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for President in 1924, announced Wednesday he will support Republican nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower in this year's campaign because "widespread corruption" in government "demands a change in party control."

Davis Will Back Ike

☆ ☆ ☆

WAHOO, Neb. (AP)—Robert B. Crosby, Republican candidate for Governor, said Wednesday night that in some respects the problems of public education "are more urgently in need of attention than any other set of problems in Nebraska."

Attention To Education

In a campaign address prepared for delivery at a dinner meeting and rally here, Crosby said standards for certification of teachers are lower in Nebraska than in any other state.

"It is very important that the next Governor co-operate with the Legislature in establishing higher certification standards for Nebraska teachers," he said. "We must not drag our feet in a matter as important as the quality of instruction that the state furnishes to children."

Crosby said he is "unqualifiedly opposed to federal aid to education, and I am opposed to spending public funds on privately operated schools. In my opinion it is extremely important that the voters approve the proposal for a state board of education in order that stronger leadership can be supplied in Nebraska.

Lincoln Independents To Form Raecke Club

Independent voters of Lincoln will meet at the YWCA Friday at 8 p.m. to form a Raecke for Governor Club it was announced Wednesday. Earle Burnett will be temporay chairman and the speaker will be James F. Green, Omaha attorney and a recent candidate for national commander of the American Legion.

The meeting is open to all independent voters, Republicans and Democrats who are interested in having Raecke elected governor.

Assistance Rolls Shrink By 2,000 In Six Months

Old age assistance rolls in Nebraska have shrunk over 2,000 since July 1, 1951, or approximately 10 per cent the board of control reported Wednesday.

While individual average payments have risen $1 to $2 a month, the total monthly cost has dropped $87,000 and now amount to $1,105,002.

The rolls 15 months ago contained 22,599 recipients getting $1,192,187 per month and in September 20,653 received $1,105,002.

Reasons given for closing cases in September which are similar to reasons in other months showed that 139 of the 341 had died. Increase of resources of people in the home accounted for 29 and support from persons outside the home permitted 21 to leave the assistance rolls. Thirteen of the recipients were able to get employment or earnings increased so they were self supporting.

The Aid-to-Dependent Children and blind assistance rolls show a similar situation.

ADC: 7,898 children in 3,314 families received an average of $89.86 per family, or a total of $297,807 in July, 1951; this compared to 6,387 children in 2,544 families, averaging $93.42 per family for total of $237,654 in September, 1952.

Blind: July, 1951, 746 persons, average $6,221, total $46,408. September, 1952, 729 persons, average $65.92, total $48,052.

TV Producer Hertz Claims Fairbanks Broke His Nose

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (INS) —Television producer Kenneth Hertz Wednesday nursed a broken nose which he said was inflicted by Thomas Fairbanks, estranged husband of Dolores (Dee Dee) Fairbanks, daughter of the late John Barrymore.

Fairbanks admitted he "backhanded" Hertz across the face in a pre-dawn argument at Hertz' Beverly Hills home last Sunday, adding:

"I've been wrong. I've been trying to effect a reconciliation with Dee Dee. But this might ruin it all."

Fairbanks, from whom Miss Barrymore obtained an interlocutory divorce decree last May 19 after three years of marriage, added:

"There is a jealousy angle. Dee Dee has been going out with Hertz. She was at his home last Sunday. I went over there. We argued and I back-handed Hertz. A friend of mine dragged me away. That's all there was to it."

Beverly Hills police disclosed the 22-year-old Miss Barrymore asked that an officer be assigned to protect her because she "feared her husband might be wanting to cause her harm."

She and Fairbanks are the parents of two children, Hillary, 2, and Anthony, 3 months.

Toothbrush Sales Off In Britain; Smiles Dull

LONDON (AP) — Here's one reason why the British smile could be brighter: More than half the population does not own a toothbrush.

Miss Pat Hornsby-Smith, parliamentary secretary to the Health Ministry, said she made this discovery from a study of sales statistics.

Neither Governor Nor Wagner Suffered Even A Scratch In Wheels Up Landing

There will be no Purple Hearts in connection with the wheels up landing of a Naval plane near St. Louis of which Lt. Paul Wagner was the pilot and Col. Val Peterson of the Air Force a passenger.

Both are reserve officers and in civilian life Wagner is state budget director and Peterson is governor of Nebraska. At the time of the crash Peterson was enroute to make a political speech in behalf of Gen. Eisenhower and Wagner was on a training flight.

Wagner explained that the "shoulder risers" with which Navy planes are equipped kept them upright in the seats and that neither even got a bloody nose or a scratch. He was unable to explain the engine failure of the plane which he said occurred at about 8,000 feet.

After making every effort to again start the engine, he said he took all precautions and then prepared to land in an alfalfa field which was visible. The wheels were not lowered, he explained, because the field was short and bounded by a wire fence and trees.

Th training plane he was flying, Wagner said, can be landed without complete wrecking when the wheels are not used. After an examination by Navy personnel at St. Louis, it was considered probable that the plane could be repaired on the field and flown to the base.

Efforts to contact Lambert Field by radio when an emergency landing was certain was handicapped by the fact that a radio operator was in the process of giving a radio report.

The first newspaper reports were erroneous, Wagner insisted after he had been flown back to Lincoln Wednesday, in saying that he landed in a corn field. It was a nice smooth alfalfa field, he pointed out.

Community Chest, Red Cross Fund At 46 Per Cent Of Goal

Lincoln Community Chest-Red Cross campaign funds reached a total of $217,277 or 46 per cent of the $467,653 goal Wednesday.

At the third day's campaign luncheon held at the Chamber of Commerce, a total of $48,427 was reported to the fund.

The Advance Gifts section with John Lawlor as leader reported $25,092.

John M. Spray's division of Classified Employees section turned in $22,600.

For the women's residential section under the direction of Mrs. W. Avon Fraser the sum of $735 was reported.

Walter S. Henrion, general chairman of the campaign, stated to the workers that progress was slow but because of the nature of the campaign in combining the Chest goal and the Red Cross goal into one campaign it was expected it would be a bit slower this year.

Henrion reported to the workers that there were quite a few dollar subscriptions from individuals which were wholly inadequate for 29 Chest agencies and the Red Cross. "This is only three and one-third cents an agency and is not commensurate with the services of the agencies and one's income," he said.

One more Oscar was given out for attaining a goal. Mrs. V. C. Sloan was awarded an Oscar for her work in the residential section.

There were 36 more firms whose employees reached their quotas. They are:

American Red Cross, Lancaster County Chapter
Office of Dr. V. S. Barkey

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

In courtesy to Miss Charleen Jordan, who will become the bride of Vernon Cagle at an evening ceremony to be solemnized Saturday, November 1, at Evangelical United Brethren church, the ladies of the church entertained Monday evening in the church parlors. A miscellaneous shower was presented to Miss Jordan, and hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Paul Holm, Mrs. Al Deshayes, Mrs. Melyin McArtor and Mrs. Elmer Christiansen.

On Sunday afternoon, Miss Jordan went to Clay Center where she was the guest of honor at an informal shower for which Miss Stella Griemsman and Mrs. Louis Hertel were hostesses at the home of Miss Griemsman.

Other recent affairs honoring the bride-to-be include the shower held September 26 with Miss Ruth Martin as hostess, and the canned goods shower Tuesday evening, October 14, when Miss Lucille Strohm entertained a group of guests at her home.

Sunday Ceremony

Miss Kathryn Ann Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil L. Anderson of Lyons, became the bride of John S. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Larson, also of Lyons, at a 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony, Sunday, October 19. White chrysanthemums and lighted white candles decorated the chancel, and white candles ornamented with sprays of bittersweet and huckleberry foliage, marked the pews of the processional aisle, for the wedding, which took place at the First Presbyterian church in Lyons.

The lines of the service were read by the Rev. Joseph Barnet, and Mrs. Charles Johnson, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Johnson also accompanied Miss Jean Larson who sang "At Dawning" and "Wedding Prayer," and Delbert Pinkerton who sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Arnold Heideman of Lyons, was her sister's matron of honor and wore a gown of forest green faille. A scalloped collar framed the drop-shoulder bodice, and the flaring redingote skirt was accented by an underskirt of pleated green satin. An ostrich plume trimmed her green satin cap and she carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and lacelon. Frocked identically in gold faille and satin, with bouquets of bronze mums, were the bridesmaids, Miss LaVonnie Poeschl, Lyons, Miss Mary Ann Rae, Ord, and Mrs. Dale Olson, Fremont. The junior bridesmaids, wearing coppertoned faille, were Miss Judy Heideman and Miss Jenine Major, and Jon Heideman was ringbearer.

The bride's period gown was fashioned of ivory satin. Soft folds of the satin edged with Alencon lace formed the decollete neckline of the molded bodice, which had long, fitted sleeves, and the lace motif was repeated at the hipline of the gently-fulled skirt which ended in a train. A pearl-trimmed cap of satin held her tiered illusion veil, and she carried a white prayer book clustered with green orchids.

Delvin Nelsen of Lyons, served as best man, and the ushers were Burnell Swanson of Blair, Lawrence Anderson and Donald Dyson, both of Lyons.

A reception for two hundred guests was held at the church, after which the couple left for a trip to the Ozarks.

The bride has attended Midland college, Fremont, and Mr. Larson, a former student at Kemper Military Academy, Booneville, Mo., has attended the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

Fast Talker

IF WE WANT to get anything told this morning we're going to have to talk fast—This, as you well know, is a long, long week end for the non-college crowd because of the teachers' convention, and if you think various members of the young set aren't going to utilize the free time to the best advantage—perish the thought.

* * *

THIS MORNING, for instance, Mrs. Fritz Teal, her daughters, Miss Gretchen and Linda, leave for Des Moines — That might be fun enough in itself, but there are bigger and better plans as far as Miss Gretchen Teal is concerned—While her mother and younger sister lead a leisurely life at the hotel and visit friends and relatives in Des Moines, Miss Teal will accompany Mrs. Clarence Kurtz of Des Moines to South Bend, Ind., where on Friday evening and as the guest of John Kurtz, the young lady will attend the sophomore cotillion at Notre Dame.

* * *

UNDERSTAND that Pat Stafford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Stafford, has plans for the week end, too—Miss Stafford is expecting a house guest, Miss Maureen Lindsey of Grand Island, and numerous informal affairs have been planned.

* * *

NOT TOO much has been planned for the approaching week end by members of the adult population since the game is out of town—However we did learn that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin will be a dinner host and hostess on Saturday evening at their home, and that a guest eightsome has been invited.

* * *

THE NEWS this week is dotted with travelers to Colorado for the Colorado Nebraska game on Saturday—Added to all of those we have mentioned from time to time are the names of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bookstrom—

* * *

THEN WE heard that Mr. and Mrs. Max Lehman and their daughter, Miss Sara Lehman, also will be among those present in Boulder on Saturday—Wonder if Miss Lehman will cheer for Nebraska (where she is a student this year) the first half, and Colorado, where she spent her college freshman year the second half.

* * *

HEAR THAT Dr. and Mrs. Norman Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson are at the Broadmoor, Colorado Springs, at the moment—that they will be joined later by Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Carveth for the trek to Boulder and Saturday's game.

* * *

OFF TO CHICAGO today will go Mr. and Mrs. G. Porter Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. George Levi who will spend the week end there.

* * *

ON THE COURSE list this week are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts of Findlay, O., who are the house guests of Mrs. Roberts' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mahaffey. Also guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mahaffey are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Parker of St. Joseph, Mo. Mrs. Parker is the former Margaret Jane Mahaffey.

* * *

FROM Washngton D. C. comes the news of the birth of a son, Rees III, to Mr. and Mrs. Rees Wilkinson Jr., on Saturday, October 18. The young man's paternal grandfather is Rees Wilkinson of Lincoln.

Drama Group Gives Program

When the members of the Delta Delta Delta Alliance met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Zimmer, they were entertained at a program of unusual interest. A "drama quartet" composed of (from left to right) Paul Schupbach, David Andrews, Mrs. Norman Shaw and Bill Lucas, presented a reading of the play, "Country Girl," by Clifford Odets, a production which will soon tour the midwest starring Robert Young.

Axis Has UN Exhibit

In observation of United Nations Week, members of the Axis Business and Professional Women's club featured an exhibit on handcraft and articles from foreign lands, Tuesday evening, following their dinner-meeting at the YWCA.

As Arnold Grava and Millija Lusins, wearing a costume from her native Latvia, look on, Mrs. Grava examines a part of the display of handwoven materials from Latvia.

At the close of the evening, an informal coffee was held honoring foreign students attending Union college, Nebraska Wesleyan university and the University of Nebraska. Presiding at the refreshment table were Dr. Doris Hsu of China, an instructor at Nebraska Wesleyan, and Mrs. Tahira Vahidy of Pakistan, a University of Nebraska student.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesy

Miss Leora Sasse, whose marriage to Ben Molsyk will be solemnized in the near future, was the honored guest Wednesday when a group of co-workers at the court house entertained at luncheon at the Hotel Cornhusker. Twenty guests attended the affair.

Ladies Day Out

Mrs. Neal Pettit, Mrs. Rueben Scheidt and Mrs. William Phipps will be the hostesses for Thursday's meeting of Ladies' Day Out at the YWCA at 1:15 o'clock. The afternoon will include a fine arts program and nursery care for the pre-school children of the members.

Discuss School Legislation

Judge John L. Polk spoke on, "Privileges of the Family," at the Tuesday evening meeting of RANDOLPH P.T.A. Mrs. George T. Weblemoe gave information on legislation relative to the new plan for a state school board, and Mrs. Ethel Long, principal of the school, presented a talk on the four types of new report cards to be used this year.

Mrs. Adrian R. Legault, president, presided and hostesses were mothers of fifth grade students, including, Mrs. R. R. Cook, Mrs. Fred Reed and Mrs. Don Hickman.

Parents of seventh grade students met at EVERETT junior high school on Tuesday afternoon and made a tour of the building. Members of the school's junior council explained their duties concerning the school, and seventh grade teachers were introduced by Mrs. Ruth Place, principal.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

The new officers of the BELMONT PTA were installed Tuesday evening by Mrs. John Schwindt who officially opened the new season for the group.

Committee chairmen were introduced and they are as follows: publicity, Mrs. Herb Glover; hospitality, Mrs. Glenn Hester; membership, Mrs. Ed Voboirl; magazine, Mrs. Ed Hamer; health, Mrs. S. M. Radke; adult education, Mrs. Laben DeRyke; safety, Mrs. D. D. Cox and recreation, Mrs. Chester Dill.

The speaker for the evening was Eleanor Swanson, principal of Hartley School, who explained the reasons for the development of the new report cards. Muriel Lehto, of Union College, sang two selections for the group.

Mrs. Nadine Keech and Mrs. Bernice Warne were hostesses for the social hour which followed the meeting.

B And PW Club

Members of the recreation committee of the Lincoln Business and Professional Women's Club were hostesses on Saturday evening at a card party. Miss Irene Williams, chairman of the committee, was in charge and about twenty members were present.

The public affairs committee of the Lincoln B. and P. W. met on Sunday at the home of Miss Mary Jeffery, chairman of the committee. The program for the dinner meeting on Thursday was planned and it was announced that the newly elected president of the Lincoln Film Forum, Mrs. Urania Wedgewood, would speak.

The health and safety committee of the club also had a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson. The committee, headed by Mrs. Williamson, resolved to arrange a visit for the club members to the Fairview County Home and the same time learn about ways and means by which the club might be of assistance to the Home.

Following the meeting, members were served refreshments and the remainder of the evening was spent with cards.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Calkins will be the guests of honor on Sunday, October 26, when their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Calkins, 1915 South Twenty-fourth Street, entertain at an open house in celebration of the C. M. Calkins' Golden Wedding anniversary.

The open house will be from 2 to 5 o'clock and from 7 to 9 o'clock and friends are invited to come without further invitation.

State Hospital Birthday Party

On Thursday afternoon the Gray Ladies of the Red Cross will be hostesses at the monthly party for patients at the State Hospital whose birthdays occur in October. Assisting with the decorations are the pupils in the Junior Red Cross at Blessed Sacrament school, with Mrs. C. E. Vandergee, Mrs. O. K. Bouwsma, and Mrs. J. O. Hertzler in charge of arrangements.

Never Seem Bored

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

When even a trace of boredom dims your charm, just consider the damage done when it is chronic! Boredom despoils your face with a sullen expression and flattens your voice into monotone. It stales your mind, dulls your emotion and deadens your personality. Everything you do in a bored state is laborious effort and you plod through tasks with a depressing weariness.

But the moment a real interest comes along to dispel the ennui and pierce your weariness, your pulse quickens, you race through your work, your efficiency leaps to a new high—and with it your charm. There's a bright look in your eye and a liveliness about your complexion; your conversation sparkles with lyrical, spontaneious variants in your voice.

The happy, rich life is always one that is crowded with interests. If those who think they haven't time for a new hobby or two would just pry a little time out of their regular routine to get a new pursuit started, they'd soon find they had plenty of time. The spark and verve generated by the new interest would speed up all their activities.

The greatest benefit is obtained in choosing a new interest that is in greatest contrast to your usual occupations. An office worker derives the most rewards from an outdoor sport or activity. If your duties are mainly manual, select an interest involving ideas.

Minerva's Mail

The Mail this morning had several letters—one or two for Lou—two for Worried Mother, and one that is in answer to a problem we had some time ago—But since we must be economical of space this morning, I think we shall read the shorter of the two letters to Lou— and here it is:

Dear Minerva: When I read Lou's letter the other morning I laughed right out loud—it had happened to me. My husband had exceptionally good sense about everything but his popularity. He was much older than I gather Lou's husband is when we were married. My first husband had died a few years before so, as a widow I had had a little experience with the "extra" man at parties. In fact that is how I met my husband. Well, it took him over two years to decide in his own mind that he had not been popular just for himself alone, but because an unattached male always is more or less at a premium. He very subtly blamed me for his sudden descent down the social ladder, but as time went on and we became included in many of the older married crowd's functions, he regained his social balance and things have been fine ever since. I suggest that Lou sort of organize a crowd of her own so that he won't miss his former social butterfly existence quite so much. If Lou but knew the truth she has hundreds of kindred souls, and possibly some right in her home town who would be glad to cooperate. Anyway, I found that teasing my husband a little about being socially-conscious helped some—no man likes to admit that he likes to be a gad-about. We really have a nice time now, and I am sure that my husband doesn't give much of a thought to his former life— Jen.

War Mothers Honor 4 At State Meet

The two oldest American War Mothers, the mother having five sons in the services and the youngest Gold Star Mother attending the state convention of the organization, received special recognition Wednesday night at a banquet at the Cornhusker Hotel.

The four women are: Mrs. Alice Blank of 1440 P, and Mrs. Ella Armstrong of Sargent, who are both 82 years old this year; Mrs. Mildred McNichols of Omaha who has had three sons in World War II and two in the Korean War, and Mrs. Clarice Thompson, 49, of 329 No. 28, who is the youngest Gold Star Mother.

All four women have had other close relatives besides sons in the services — which include three wars, World War I, World War II and the Korean War.

Mrs. Blank's son served in France during World War I; one grandson and eight nephews served in World War II, and another grandson is serving in the Marines at present.

The son of Mrs. Armstrong spent two years in France during World War I and her grandson was a navy radio technician during World War II.

Of the five sons of Mrs. McNichols four have been in the navy and one in the air force. Three served overseas during World War II, and two presently are in the service. One son, John Dale, is being sent to Korea Nov. 15, Mrs. McNicholas said.

She also had what she called "inumerable" nephews serving in World War II as well as four who are presently in the service.

The son of Mrs. Thompson was killed during World War II while serving in Okinawa. She is president of the Lincoln chapter of American War Mothers.

Two speakers at a banquet Wednesday night warned the Mothers veterans hospitals in Nebraska may be forced to admit only those who can show a service connection with their disability unless Congress passes a deficiency appropriation in January for such hospitals.

Both men—Dr. Harry Scott of Veterans Hospital and Lawrence Durfee, service officer of the State Department of Veterans Affairs—urged the women to write their Congressional representatives and demand an appropriation.

WAR MOTHERS HONORED—Four American War Mothers were presented special awards Wednesday night at the banquet during the state convention of the organization. The mothers honored are: (seated, l. to r.) Mrs. Alice Blank of Lincoln and Mrs. Ella Armstrong of Sargent, both 82, and the oldest attending the convention; (standing, l. to r.) Mrs. Clarice Thompson of Lincoln, youngest Gold Star Mother; and Mrs. Mildred McNichols of Omaha, the mother with five sons who have served or are serving in the armed forces. (Star Staff Photo.)

Minimum Of Block Between Schools, Businesses Urged

The City Planning Commission has recommended that business developments be placed a minimum of one block from school properties and probably two blocks.

The Commission was asked to make a recommendation in regards to the two ordinances before the City Council seeking local business zoning on Adams between 59th and 60th and 60th and 63rd. The latter request was made by James Strauss and the other by Don Dixon.

The Lincoln School Board has protested both applications on the grounds the sites were too close to Northeast High School property which may be developed as an elementary school. The school property faces Adams between 61st and 63rd.

In less definite language, the Commission recommended that local business should be established "a reasonable distance from schools."

A hearing on the requested zoning changes will be held before the City Council on Nov. 10.

Anti-TB Drug Leprosy Aid, Tests Show

TOKYO (AP)—An official of a Japanese leper sanatorium has reported favorable results in the treatment of leprosy with the new anti-tuberculosis drug isonicotinic acid hydrazide, Kyodo News Agency reports.

Prof. Kazuo Saikawa said tests were made on 14 patients since last March. Five of them have recovered completely and the disease has been stopped in the others, he announced.

Joan Kirsch, 18, Dies At Hospital After Long Illness

Joan Kirsch, 18, of Lincoln, died Wednesday evening at a local hospital following long illness.

Born in 1934 at Tulsa, Okla., Miss Kirsch had lived in Lincoln nearly all her life.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kirsch; a sister, Margaret Ann; and a brother, Howard, all of Tulsa; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kirsch of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Woodbury of Tulsa.

Private funeral services will be held Friday morning. Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Union Jack Is Lowered In Teheran

Signal That British, Iran Relations Ended

TEHERAN, Iran (AP) — The British hauled down the Union Jack and removed the coat of arms from their embassy's gate Wednesday a signal that Iran had broken diplomatic relations with Britain.

A small crowd of Iranians cheered as the lion and unicorn disappeared. To them it meant victory in the multi-million dollar fight with a powerful overseas adversary.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government blamed Britain for the rupture, the climax of 19 months of quarreling over the oil riches developed by the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Company in this desert country.

"Very Glad"

It charged that the British government "prevented an agreement by unlawfully supporting the former company" and that British officials created "difficulties aimed at disturbing this country's order and security." But it concluded that Iran would be "very glad" to renew relations if a favorable atmosphere and good understainding is created.

Mossadegh announced last Thursday he was ordering the break because Britain refused to pay $137,200,000 in disputed oil royalties.

Alliance Housewife 92nd Polio Victim In State For 1952

ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP) — Mrs. Doris Lance, 22-year-old Alliance housewife, became Box Butte County's first polio death of the year Wednesday.

Mrs. Lance died at an Alliance hospital of bulbar polio after being admitted to the hospital, Oct. 15. Her condition became more serious Tuesday and she was placed in an iron lung.

A former resident of Hemingford, Mrs. Lance is survived by her husband, Dale, and three small children.

She was the 92nd Nebraskan to die of polio this year.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Eighteen or more persons were killed and 40 injured in an earthquake which shook the Adana region in southern Turkey Wednesday.

First reports said extensive damage was done to buildings in the city of 150,000 and that the death toll might prove much higher. Full information was lacking due to a breakdown in communications.

Bakersfield Given A Jolt

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — A sharp earthquake rocked this tremor-conscious city at 12:04 p.m. (PST) Wednesday but there were no reports of damage.

Authorities said the shock was accompanied by considerable noise and many residents left their homes.

$10 Million Water Improvement Plan Well Received By Council, Board

Lincoln's City Council and the Water Advisory Board have generally received with approval the Black & Veatch engineering report calling for a $10,450,000 improvement program for the city water system.

The report, presented Tuesday night to the Council and Board by members of the Kansas City, Mo., engineering firm, did at least one thing for sure—it left no doubt in anyone's mind that an extensive water improvement program for Lincoln is a must.

"The water supply," said Councilman Chauncey W. D. Kinsey, "has to be increased. I think the suggested program is certainly adequate and is a wise way to plan."

Also commenting on the report, Councilman Roy Sheaff asserted that "I don't think hardly any water programs could ever be too strong. If there is anything we owe the people, it is a 100 per cent water supply. I believe the people not only want it, but will demand it."

Mayor Victor E. Anderson prefaced his remarks with words of praise for the Advisory Board. "Lincoln is fortunate," said the mayor, "to have as fine a Water Board as it has.

"As to the water situation, if the city is to continue to grow and attract new industry, we must have a substantial water supply."

Anderson also pointed out that the proposed improvements would not be an additional tax burden. The Black & Veatch report calls for the issuance of either general obligation or revenue bonds to be retired out of Water Department revenue.

Anderson pointed out that Lincoln now enjoys one of the lowest water rates in the country.

Tom Veatch of Black & Veatch told the Board and Council that Lincoln's water rates "were ridiculously low." This city's water rates, stated Veatch, could be tripled and still be below those in the majority of cities this size.

City Councilman Rees Wilkinson admitted the report was "a big dish to spring on the people" but added that "on the other hand, we have to have water. As I see it, the plan would be financed with revenue bonds. While it would affect the water users, there is no way around the problem."

Councilman Pat Ash and Clark Jeary believed the plan was generally a good one but were a little more hesitant in their approval. Jeary reminded that the report was only preliminary.

"I know something has to be done," he said, "but I have no comment at this time as to the extent of the improvements that should be undertaken."

"The report was very fine," commented Ash, "but it was preliminary. I am not criticizing the report but I would want further information on some subjects before reaching a decision."

Ash particularly mentioned the proposed future water source as a subject for more study. Ash questioned the advisability of placing all dependence on Ashland as the city's source as proposed by Black & Veatch.

Also, said Ash, the program as now outlined calls for more money than was first discussed. Previously, he said, a figure of around $5 to $6 million had been mentioned.

Both Sheaff and Board Chairman Byron Dunn felt the report gave ample proof of the advisability of Ashland as a continued source of supply. Five other possible sources were discounted by Black & Veatch because of their distance from Lincoln, geographic location from Lincoln, their total available water supply and the type of water available.

Dunn also stated that there "is no doubt we will have to have an extensive improvement program. It is evident now that Ashland is the best source of supply and that the new transmission line from Ashland to Lincoln (estimated to cost $4,100,000) should be parallel to but across the railroad tracks from the existing line."

Dunn said it would be a week before his committee would hold another meeting on the proposed plan. Each committee member, he said, has been assigned a different phase of the program to study such as rates, source of supply, water mains finances, etc.

Bette Davis Is Ready To Resume Musical

DETROIT (INS)—A throat specialist said Wednesday that Bette Davis will be able to resume her part in the twice-cancelled new musical revue, "Two's Company," Thursday night in Detroit.

The specialist was flown in from New York to treat the two-time academy award winner for an acute attack of laryngitis.

Miss Davis collapsed on stage at the Sunday opening but regained consciousness and finished the show. Monday night the musical was presented without the star.

Tuesday night's show was cancelled completely because of the continued illness and the reluctance of the backers to use an understudy for the much-followed star.

Wednesday night's show was called off to give Miss Davis another day's rest to guarantee sufficient recovery.

BOBBY MAY BE READY FOR KANSAS

First Two Buff Signal Callers Hurt

Rog Williams Sprains Ankle In Scrimmage

By The Associated Press

BOULDER, Colo. — Colorado's first string offensive quarterback Roger Williams, sprained his left ankle Wednesday as the Buffaloes went through heavy scrimmaging preparing for Nebraska.

Second String Quarterback Lee Venzke also is suffering from an ankle sprain. Coach Dallas Ward used the entire squad in scrimmaging except Venzke.

Along with the heavy scrimmage, Ward emphasized again the Buff's blocking, with which he said he was "entirely dissatisfied" in last Saturday's game at Iowa State, despite Colorado's 21-12 win.

A sellout crowd of 30,500 is expected for the Nebraska game which would set a new attendance record at Folsom Field.

Tigers Hampered

COLUMBIA, Mo.—Coach Don Faurot said Wednesday that he fears Bill Fessler, his number two punter, and Jim Martin, starting defensive guard, may be lost to the University of Missouri football team in Saturday's game with Iowa State as a result of injuries they received in practice Tuesday.

Faurot, continuing to work behind closed gates, said he gave his offensive platoon a heavy drill Wednesday, seeking to get the scoring machine in gear for the Cyclones. In a forward-passing scrimmage, he said, he used Tony Scardino, Jim Hook and Vic Eaton at throwing the ball.

Sooners Slow Pace

NORMAN, Okla. — Oklahoma footballers scrimmaged at half speed Wednesday as Coach Bud Wilkinson slowed practice tempo in an effort to pace his charges toward a sharp edge for Kansas State Saturday.

He said Roger Nelson, all-conference tackle last year, would be available if needed. Nelson has been out with an injured elbow.

Halfback Buddy Leake, Sooner point-kicking ace, is expected to start. X-rays taken Wednesday confirmed an earlier diagnosis that he suffered only a sprained ankle in the Kansas game and nothing more.

I-S Has New General

AMES, Ia.—Bill Plantan, LaSalle, Ill., sophomore, appeared Wednesday to be Iowa State's new starting quarterback in its Big Seven Conference football game at Missouri Saturday.

Plantan, still limping with a bad foot injured several weeks ago, directed the Cyclones' second-half comeback against Colorado last Saturday. His passing and running threatened to pull out a homecoming victory.

The Cyclone continued to stress punt protection Wednesday. Coach Abe Stuber has scheduled a "general review" Thursday with emphasis on pass offense and defense.

Stuber said Guard Clyde Titus, who has been out with a broken foot since shortly after fall practice began, probably will be ready for next week's game with Oklahoma.

KU's Poppe Sidelined

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Coach Jules Sikes said Wednesday night Orville Poppe, big University of Kansas tackle, is likely to be sidelined for the Southern Methodist game at Dallas Saturday.

The 255-pounder injured his back in the Oklahoma game last week. While the condition wasn't considered serious, Sikes said, it has failed to respond to treatment. Sophomore Bud Bixler, who started as a defensive guard against the Sooners, may take over Poppe's berth.

Sikes gave a number of his regulars a rest Wednesday evening, conducting a half-hour defensive scrimmage against reserves running SMU formations.

Wildcats Polish Up

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State's varsity polished up on defense this evening, with freshmen running offensive plays against the regulars. The Wildcats meet Oklahoma Saturday.

Coach Bill Meek said it was still not determined whether Elmer Creviston, who re-injured his knee during Tuesday's scrimmage, would be able to play.

WE heard an item the other day about one of the most relaxed football players we've ever known.

Ron Clark, the crazy-legged kid whose running bewildered Husker opponents in 1949 and 1950, is starring for an Army team at Camp Breckenridge, Ky.

The Ravenna halfback, who intends to some day use his year of remaining eligibility at Nebraska, has hit 14 of 19 passes, run back punts for 80 and 55 yards to score and, in general, is proving himself mighty pesky to all opponents.

Ron Clark

Ron had that remarkable power of relaxing at any given time.

He often fell asleep in the dressing room before a game. Once, when Backfield Coach Bob Davis was giving him instructions on the plane, Ron fell sound asleep.

Two autumns back, Ron, Tony Winey and Don Strasheim and the writer were returning from the Kearney High football banquet.

Midway between Seward and Lincoln, the old buggy ran out of gas. It was a sub-zero night with snow flying, the car was one of these airy convertibles and the time was in the wee morning hours. There wasn't a farm house in sight, nor another car on the road.

Tony, Stras and your flinger had visions of winding up in an ice cake, so hurried out on the highway to try to flag down an approaching motorist.

Finally, after a very cold hour, we halted a truck. Someone asked: "Where's Clark?"

You guessed it. Ron, unworried by the situation, was sound asleep back in the car.

Look at Joe DiMaggio during one of the most crucial doubleheaders in baseball history in Yankee Stadium in 1949. Out most of the season with injuries, Joe had led his team to a 3-2 decision over the Red Sox in the first game as the American League pennant rode on every pitch. There was a world of noise and high tension in the Yankee dugout when Joe walked off the field between games. You know what he did? He sat on the bench, crossed his legs and fell sound asleep until Stengel woke him up for the second game.

Once awake again, he hit two for three in the second game. One of the hits was a home run that gave the Yanks a 6-4 victory and assured the pennant.

DIFFERENT players depend on different modes of relaxation.

The late Babe Ruth counted on occasional late nights on the town or indulgence in hot dogs and soft drinks. Only The Babe, of course, could get by with this form of easing the pressure.

Emil Zatopek, the amazing Czech who won three distance titles at the recent Olympics, wags his head madly from side to side while he runs. There's a method in his madness; he says it relaxes his neck muscles.

A tennis player who tenses while being served won't ever wind up at Wimbleton. Watch how relaxed such tennists Bobby Riggs, Frank Sedgman and Ted Schroeder are as they receive the serve.

Jim Thorpe, the immortal Big Injun of football, could relax on the playing field. While he was relaxing one time, Knute Rockne, just turned pro, eagerly nailed the big halfback. Thorpe called for the ball on the next play and trampled right over Rockne for a touchdown.

Rockne was knocked out on the play and carried from the field. When he recovered, Big Jim was stooping over him.

"Next time," said Jim, gently, "let old Jim run."

Bobcats Invited To Armistice Day Tilt

PERU, Neb. (INS)—The Peru State Teachers College Bobcats have been invited to play in a post-season Armistice Day football game at North Platte, Neb.

The Peru athletic office said the Bobcats, unbeaten so far in the Nebraska College Conference, will meet Augustana College, of Sioux Falls, S. D.

The November 11th game will be played as part of an Armistice Day observance planned by the North Platte veterans' organizations and other civic groups.

No Big Seven Invite To Utah

. . . Say Ute Officials

SALT LAKE CITY (INS)—Utah University officials late this afternoon denied that "official feelers" were extended to admit the Utes to the Big Seven football conference.

Thus, speculation that Utah would join the Big Seven fell flat, despite two statements by the athletic directors of the Universities of Nebraska and Colorado that they favored the admission of the Utes in the conference.

University of Nebraska Athletic Director George (Potsy) Clark has said he would "personally favor" admission of Utah to the Big Seven League after it was reported that Utah had received a "feeler."

Athletic Director Harry Carlson of Colorado also said that he would favor the admission of the Redskins to the Big Seven, but admitted geographical difficulties might prevent it.

Seward Hits Aurora, 13-0

Lincoln Star Special

SEWARD—Swivel-hipped Jim Griffin led his Seward High School mates to a 13-0 victory over Aurora here Wednesday night.

Griffin put the Blue Jays in front in the second quarter when he raced 72-yards to score and iced the game in the third frame with a two-yard buck

George Potter brought the home folks to their feet when he snagged an Aurora fumble in mid-air and dashed 75-yards before being hauled down.

Seward	0	6	7	0	13

Seward scoring: TD—Griffin 2. PAT—Ken Styskal (plunge).

Bivins Decisions Wesley Bascom

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Veteran Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland, well known as a power puncher, added to his reputation Wednesday night by winning a split decision over young Wes Bascom in a 10-round heavyweight bout at the St. Louis Arena.

While Bivians, a 32-year-old campaigner, overpowered the 23-year-old Bascom, the decision was close all the way. Judges Fred Connell and Harold Hess both saw it 51-49 in favor of Bivins. Referee Benny Kessler ruled it a 50-50 draw.

Spaniels Like It Best In Briar Patches, Swamps

(This is the fifth and last in a series of articles dealing with hunting dogs—their characteristics and their value. Today's article discusses the spaniels—Irish, Cocker and the Springer.)

By DON BRYANT
Star Sports Staff Member

LAST but by no means least on the list of popular gun-dogs is the spaniel.

All spaniels—including Springer, Cocker and Irish—are referred to as bird dogs. This is true because it is assumed that they use air currents to seek out birds, in contrast to the hounds which follow trail scents.

Since the spaniels are bird dogs, they are especially advantageous when the game is "setting" and when the dog is after a "runner"—a pheasant that has been knocked down but is still able to run.

A few of the inherent qualities of the spaniels that rank them as high-class workers include: water going, briar hitting, retrieving, proper carry of the retrieve, soft mouth, capacity for training, bird hunting and fence crashing.

COCKER SPANIEL—Probably the world's most popular dog, the Cocker is certainly American's favorite. During 1946 almost 75,000 of the American-type breed were registered.

However popular the Cocker is, he is losing ground as a hunter. Once again, the problem of turning hunters into bench dogs, because of their beauty and disposition, enters the picture.

A distinct mark of the breed is its cheerful disposition, which make it an ideal pet for children and grownups, as well as a fine show dog. Shyness and hysteria have also become serious problems for Cocker breeders and tend to decrease the breed's hunting capabilities.

The American Cocker is divided into three varieties, primarily based on color. The colors are black, any other solid color (also black and tan) and parti-colors.

Losing ground as a hunter, but gaining rapidly as a pet and show dog that's the story of the lovable Cocker.

IRISH WATER SPANIEL—Here is a large sporting dog, known as a retriever of upland game and waterfowl.

He will work from a shore blind, a duck boat in open water or off rocks and he'll wade into mud without hesitation.

He is a strong swimmer and a fast learner which enables him to quickly differentiate the fall of a dead duck from that of a cripple and he'll head downstream to wait for the bird to float to him.

Long legs make the Irish breed well suited for rough terrain and they are excellent pheasant dogs.

The Irish water spaniel will work as a real companion and retrieve anything on land or water and, if a good bird or rabbit dog is unavailable, he'll do a reasonable job of locating as well as retrieving.

SPRINGER SPANIEL — The Springer is a relatively heavy boned dog and his feet are webbed for swimming and work in swamps.

A recent upsurge in Springer popularity is due largely to the popularity rise in pheasant hunting. The Springer quarters his ground, stays within gun range and flushes the pheasant to his master's gun.

Another advantage of the Springer is his natural hunting range—in reacn of the master's shotgun. This is valuable where population growths have limited the hunting areas.

The Springer, while not able to stand icy waters, makes a fine duck dog. He will perform all the duck work the average hunter will care to put him through and he is at his best in briar patches and swamps.

He is easily trained, quarters naturally and is taught to work to a gun with little difficulty.

Baseball Teams For 17-21 Age Group Urged

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —A nationwide program to encourage organization of baseball teams—composed entirely of players 17 to 21—will be adopted by the National Baseball Congress for 1953. This was announced here Wednesday by Congress President Ray Dumont while enroute to Versailles for a conference with A. B. "Happy" Chandler, former baseball commissioner now head of the International Baseball Congress.

Shoulder Hurt Healing Rapidly; He'll Boot Placements Saturday

BY NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

ALL-America Bobby Reynolds will play again for the Nebraska Cornhuskers after all.

Given up for the season when he separated his right shoulder in the Kansas State game (Oct. 11), the senior left halfback from Grand Island will take part in the game against Colorado Saturday as an extra point kicker.

Reynolds, according to a statement today by Coach Bill Glassford, may return to full action, Nov. 8, against Kansas at Lawrence.

Glassford's exact statement on Reynolds:

"After consultation with Dr. Frank Stone, one of our team physicians, Bob Reynolds has been given permission to take part in the game against the University of Colorado as an extra point kicker.

"Upon first examination, after his injury, it was thought that the separation was as severe as the one he suffered in 1951. However, he was willing to cooperate in rather intensive conservative treatment. Further examination has shown that he is healing much more rapidly than expected and it is possible that he will be ready to compete against the University of Kansas at Lawrence, November 8.

"Under no condition will we allow Bob to compete until he is completely healed. If there is any change in his condition a statement will be forthcoming."

After rugged scrimmage sessions Monday and Tuesday, the Huskers were tapering off for the invasion of Boulder.

Glassford in undecided between two sopohomores, Jim Cederdahl of Lincoln, and Bill Thayer, Rapid City, S.D., at the starting left halfback post. Thayer drew the nod against Penn State and performed well, although Cederdahl was nearly away on several punt returns.

The starting fullback post has not yet been decided between Ray Novak and George Cifra.

Dennis Emanuel and Bill Schabacker, who have started every game as defensive ends, will also open as offensive wingman Saturday, Glassford says the move is for improved blocking.

Remainder of the offensive starters will include Harvey Goth and Jim Oliver, tackles; George Prochaska and Kay Curtis, guards; Bob Oberlin, center and John Bordogna, quarterback.

Probable defense starters include Schabacker and Emanuel, ends; Ed Husman and Jerry Minnick, tackles; Don Boll and Max Kitzelman, guards; Carl Brasee and Verl Scott, linebackers; Dan Brown and Jim Yeisley, halfbacks, and Chuck Chamley, safety.

Yeisley, who hurt a knee against Penn State, is the only doubtful participant. Injured members back in full swing Wednesday were Boll, Guard Jerry Paulson and End Jerry Yeager.

Colorado ranks as a 13½ point favorite.

Viewmen Shock Wilber, 7-6, At Homecoming Tilt

By JIM CLARK
Star Sports Staff Member

WILBER—Doing a complete reversal of their ball game of just five nights ago, College View's inspired gridders combined vicious tackling and timely blocking to spoil Wilber's Homecoming, 7-6.

Although on the short end of the yardstick, the Viewmen came through when the chips were down to earn their second victory of the season.

With hefty Ken Vosika toting the leather, the Wolverines moved from their own 31 to the Viewman eight-yard line early in the first quarter. From there, Vosika crossed the double stripes standing up for the locals' lone tally with eight minutes gone in the first quarter.

A bad center ruined the try for point.

College View roared back, taking the ball on its own 39 and moving down to the Wolves' 10 before running out of downs. Not to be denied the victory, Freshman Larry Epp, a husky 160-pounder, set up the Viewmen's game-winning drive midway in the second period when he intercepted a Wolverine pass at midfield.

Combining a versatile running and passing attack, Quarterback Woody Oaks guided the Viewmen to the 28, from where he pitched a touchdown pass to Jack Porter. Little Paul Westbrook pushed his 135-pound frame over the center of the line for the decisive point.

A tight defensive showing by both teams highlighted the second half, with the Viewmen gaining but 10 yards on the ground while holding the Wolverines to 31.

Wilber muffed a scoring chance late in the third quarter when Sophomore Guard Ralph Graham curled around a loose ball on the one-yard line to stifle a 54-yard drive.

The Viewmen journeyed to Wilber without two previous starters, Jim (Lefty) Carlson and Darrell Bryceson, who were left at home for disciplinary reasons.

Coach Tom Gillaspie had high praise for both offensive and defensive play by his charges. Only four seniors played for the Viewmen, whose squad is made up of more than 50 per cent freshmen and sophomores.

Credit for the victory was given to the entire club for its fine teamwork. "Individual standouts were as numerous as there were players," said Gillaspie after the game.

In ceremonies at half-time, Jeannie Homolka and Allan Houser were crowned Wilber Homecoming Queen and King. Both are seniors.

CU's Jordon Is Nation's Top Punter

. . . 45.5 Average

NEW YORK (AP)—Zack Jordan, Colorado University's triple-threat star who set a collegiate punting record two years ago, once again is punting his best foot forward.

Jordan, out most of last season with a foot injury, has taken over the lead among the nation's college kickers with an average of 45.5 yards per boot. That's somewhat below his 48.2 standards of 1950, but statistics released Wednesday by the NCAA's Service Bureau show his average is on the upswing.

Joe McClaran of Drake leads the nation in pass receiving with 30 catches and in yards gained on passes with 454.

Howard Pitt of Duke took over the lead in touchdowns on passes with 6 when he nabbed one in the end zone against North Carolina State last Saturday.

UCLA's Milt Davis and Villanova's Joe McNicholas have intercepted six passes each, the former running the ball back 83 yards and the latter 52.

Jim Sears California has returned 17 punts 348 yards, but Max McGee of Tulane has a better average, 26.4 per try. Similarly, Virginia Tech's Don Booth has run 12 kick-offs back for 292 yards, while Larry Spencer of Wake Forest has the top average with 40.4 yards.

Al Conway, a former Army player now at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., tops the nation's scorers with 84 points on 14 touchdowns.

Johnny Bordogna Is 19th In Nation In Total Offense

Nebraska Quarterback Johnny Bordogna is 19th among the nation's collegiate running and passing leaders, according to figures released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Bordogna has amassed a net gain of 637 yards in 135 plays.

Although Nebraska failed to earn a place among the elite in offense, the Huskers ranked 10th in total defense and sixth in rushing offense.

Scarlet opponents have been limited to an average total offensive gain of 202 yards per game, including 89.6 yards accumulated per contest via the rushing route.

Wesleyan, Peru Among Top Teams

Hultquist, Eckman Small College Offense Leaders

Nebraska Wesleyan University and Peru State Teachers College continue to rank high statistically among the nation's smaller colleges, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics has reported.

Using games played through Oct. 11, the NAIA lists such names as Wes Hultquist and Marv Macy of Wesleyan and Ned Eckman and Dick Stockman among individual stars. Each of the two teams ranks high in three of the four categories of team play.

Hultquist rates 19th among the nation's rushing leaders with 355 yards on 51 tries. Macy ranks 19th in forward passing with 22 completions in 36 flips for 278 yards. Two of his passes were scoring heaves and three have been intercepted.

Hultquist is 11th, Eckman 28th among individual total offense leaders. Hultquist in five games handled the ball on 91 plays, picking up 359 rushing yards and 199 passing yards for a 558 total. Eckman in five games handled the ball 71 times, gaining 178 rushing yards and passing for 320 for a 498 yard total.

Hultquist ranks 19th among individual pass receiving leaders after catching 15 flips for 178 yards and two touchdowns. He ranks 6th in punting with a 40.2 average on 1,247 yards in 31 tries. Two of his kicks were blocked.

Hultquist, Eckman and Stockman rate 8th, 9th and 15th among scoring leaders with 39, 37 and 36 points respectively.

Peru with 1,231 yards in 281 rushing attempts ranks 9th in national rushing. Wesleyan rates 17th with 1,041 yards after 243 attempts.

The Plainsmen are fourth in team passing with 50 completions in 83 attempts for 595 yards. Eight Wesleyan efforts have been intercepted.

Peru is 8th, Wesleyan 13th, in total offense, Peru with 1,667 combined rushing and passing yards gained on 345 plays, Wesleyan with 1,536 yards gained on 333 plays.

Ted Kress, Michigan Junior Named AP Back Of The Week

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Kress, a 20-year-old Michigan junior who blasted his way to a new Big Ten rushing record, was named Back of the Week Wednesday by the Associated Press in a poll of sports writers and sports casters.

The hard-driving halfback chugged and churned in a dazzling display of running strength last Saturday while spearheading the Wolverines to a 48-14 victory over Northwestern.

Kress ground out 218 yards in 20 carries from scrimmage for an average of 10.9 yards per try. His total yards rushing shattered the individual game Big Ten record of 216 yards set by Michigan's Bill Daley on Oct. 2, 1943 when he toted the ball 26 times.

Oddly enough, Daley set the previous mark against Northwestern in the same Dyche Stadium in Evanston, Ill.

Kress ran roughshod in the first half of play by scoring three touchdowns. His first score came on a three-yard smash and he tallied his second touchdown on the receiving end of a 31-yard lateral pass play. Kress bolted 41 yards through the entire Northwestern team for his final six-pointer.

The 5-11, 175-pound Kress was beset by injuries last season and could never fulfill the potentialities expected of him.

Kress warmly praised his teammates for their part in the game.

"Our line really deserves the credit," said Kress. "Anyone could have run through the holes they made. As for the record, I really have to thank 21 men, 10 on our team and 11 on Northwestern."

Right in back of Kress for backfield laurels of the week was John Borton of Ohio State. Borton, in leading his team to a 35-7 win over Washington State, threw five touchdown passes and completed 15 out of 17 tosses for 312 yards.

Harry Agganis, the southpaw quarterback of Boston University, also received consideration for his part in leading BU to a 33-28 triumph over William and Mary. He threw four touchdown passes and completed 14 out of 22 attempts for 187 yards.

Maxim, Moore Bout Plans Abandoned

CHICAGO (INS)—The International Boxing Club, Inc., announced Wednesday at its Chicago headquarters that it had abandoned plans to stage a light heavyweight title bout Dec. 3 at Las Vegas, Nev., between Champion Joe Maxim and Archie Moore.

IBC Secretary Truman Gibson said plans for the bout fell through when Las Vegas sponsors refused to put up an additional $26,000 for stringing a cable to Los Angeles for a nation-wide television of the bout.

NWU-Kearney Go To Feature Punting

KEARNEY—Kearney area fans may see one of the best punting duels ever staged on a Nebraska College Conference lot Friday night when Nebraska Wesleyan and Kearney State tangle—provided the star kickers of each team are up to par.

Wesleyan's Wes Hultquist and Kearney's Herm Hinkle have starred consistently throughout the current season, lifting their teams out of bad defensive holes repeatedly.

Hultquist has booted each of Wesleyan's 39 kicks this year and is averaging 40.7 despite two blocked efforts. His kicks have traveled a total of 1,587 yards.

Notre Dame Is Favored But Irish Are Unhappy

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame's football team is favored over North Carolina Saturday and the Irish don't like it.

The coaching staff reminded the players they were picked in the opener against Penn and were tied, and were favored over Pittsburgh which tripped them 22-19. Against Texas and Purdue, the Irish were underdogs and scored upset victories.

Briton Gets Bid To Fight World Flyweight Champ

LONDON (AP)—Terry Allen, who won the British flyweight championship at Harringay Arena Tuesday night, has received an offer to fight world champion Yoshio Shira of Japan.

Manager Johnny Sharpe said Allen had been offered $10,000 for the fight.

Demonstration Will Sub For Talk By Phog Allen

Dr. Forrest C. (Phog) Allen, University of Kansas basketball coach who was scheduled to speak before the physical education section of the teachers' convention this afternoon, will be unable to attend the meeting. He is coaching the College All-Stars in Chicago.

Ralph Beechner, coordinator of physical education in the Lincoln schools, will preside over a demonstration to be presented at the Physical Education Building on the University campus at 2 p.m. in lieu of Allen's talk.

Plattsmouth Girl's Pony Wins KC Harness Event

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Flying Victory, a handsome bay gelding owned and shown by Patty Fechter of Milwaukee, won the $300 Ladies Stake in the five-gaited division at the American Royal Horse Show Wednesday.

The harness show pony ladies single event was won by Glenaris Vickey, owned by Shrader Rhoden, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Hunters Given Added Warning Against Fire

Nebraska hunters, hitting the trail for pheasants and waterfowl, were cautioned by the State Game Commission Wednesday concerning the danger of fire in the state's parched fields and woods.

The commission said "drought-like conditions" have left corn fields, weed patches and other areas very dry and asked hunters to be extremely careful about accidental fires.

Franklin To Address Prep Mentors Today

Members of the Nebraska High School Coaches Association will meet at the YMCA at noon today in conjunction with the District I convention of the Nebraska State Education Association.

Following lunch, President Ralph Bowmaster, Seward High School coach, will preside at the meeting at which Marvin Franklin, assistant grid mentor at Nebraska Wesleyan, will speak.

A short business session will wind up the meeting.

Dickson, Wynn Served Most Gopher Balls

NEW YORK —Little Murry Dickson of the Pittsburgh Pirates, whose only deficiency as a pitcher seems to be serving home run balls, and Cleveland's Early Wynn are the 1952 leaders in allowing enemy batsmen to reach the fences.

This is the second year in a row Dickson has won the uncoveted gopher crown. He gave up 32 last season, and in 1948 with the Cardinals set a major league record by being touched for 39 circuit pokes. This year 24 were hit off him.

Wynn topped the American League with 23, but racked up 23 wins, second high in the league to Bobby Shantz. Vic Wertz of the St. Louis Browns and formerly the Detroit Tigers was particularly obnoxious to Wynn with three homers off him this year.

Only George Shuba of Brooklyn hit more than one off Dickson. The Dodger outfielder cracked two. Fourteen other left handers rocked the 36-year-old hurler.

At that, Murry was just one ahead of Herman Wehmeier of Cincinnati, who had 23.

Bobby Shantz, Alex Kellner and Carl Scheib all of the Athletics mound corps finished in a three-way tie for second in the American League with 21.

Marv Grissom of the Chicago White Sox and Frank Shea of Washington issued the least home runs of any of the other regular major league moundsmen, six.

Eliot Shifts DeMoss To Right Halfback Slot

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Sophomore Bud De Moss will make his first varsity start at right halfback for Illinois in Saturday's nationally-televised football game against Purdue.

The move became necessary when Coach Ray Eliot announced that regular fullback Bill Tate would be sidelined because of a twisted foot.

The Illini, although battered after their 13-7 upset by Minnesota, scrimmaged for the third straight day Wednesday in preparation for the Boilermakers.

Wilkinson Praises Lineman Of Week Catlin As 'Greatest'

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Take it from University of Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson his 20-year-old senior center, Tom Catlin, is "one of the greatest men I have ever coached."

Catlin was named lineman of the week Wednesday in the Associated Press poll after his play Saturday in the third period that proved the turning point in Oklahoma's 42-20 victory over Kansas.

Wilkinson said Catlin "is outstanding personally as well as athletically. He has a B-plus scholastic average in addition to being one of the finest football players it has ever been my good fortune to coach."

Catlin is the type player a coach dreams about. He's practically a 60-minute-man — something rare in these days of two platoon teams.

He plays center on offense, has been known to snap the ball to quarterback Eddie Crowder and then throw as many as two key blocks down field to break an Oklahoma runner free.

The Ponca City, Okla., youth also is linebacker on defense and calls his team's defensive signals. It was his uncanny ability to sense an opponent's strategy that made him the star of two plays Saturday which prevented Kansas from scoring a vital touchdown.

With Oklahoma ahead only 21-20, Kansas stormed down to the Sooner five with third down and two to go. Catlin decided to "shoot the gap"—a daring play. He leaped through the Kansas line and nailed Jayhawk quarterback Jerry Robertson for a 5-yard losss.

Then on the next play Catlin faded back and was on the spot to bat down a Kansas pass, giving Oklahoma the ball on downs.

These two plays took much of the steam from Kansas' offense. Oklahoma scored the next three times it got the ball.

Mickey Mantle Awaits Draft Exam Decision

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (INS)—Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees World Series hero, received his third Army draft physical examination Wednesday at Oklahoma City with indeterminate results.

The young Commerce, Okla., outfielder, who was 21 last Monday, was ordered to Ft. Sill today for examination by Army doctors to determine if he is acceptable for military duty.

Mantle previously had been classified 4-F twice because of a chronic bone disease — osteomyelitis—in his left leg, above the ankle.

Mickey was called to Oklahoma City with 11 other youths, also classified as 4-F's. He received the same examination from draft doctors as the others.

Link Reserves Hit Cowboy 2nds, 14-0

Lincoln Reserves topped the Boys Town seconds, 14-0, here Wednesday afternoon to come off the victor in the two clubs' 1952 series.

Earlier, the two teams had played to a deadlock in a contest at Boys Town.

Packy Young opened the scoring for the Junior Links, crossing the twin stripes after taking a pass from Roger Krhounek. Young plunged for the PAT.

Jim Walthers scampered 80 yards for the second Red and Black TD after breaking loose on a reverse. Krhounek's plunge for the conversion wound up the scoring.

Table Rock, Wymore Battle To 7-7 Deadlock

Lincoln Star Special

TABLE ROCK—Wymore and Table Rock played to a 7-7 deadlock here Wednesday night as neither team could demonstrate an effective offense.

With the exception of the two scoring plays, the game was carried on in midfield.

Wymore tallied in the second frame when Jim Maul crashed over from the one and Ron VanLanningham booted the conversion. A fumble recovery on the Table Rock 16, followed by a 15-yard pass play, VanLanningham to Tom Marshall.

Table Rock erased the Zephyrs' lead in the third frame when Robert Freeman purloined a Wymore pass and romped 44 yards unmolested for the touchdown. Stanley Strohm plunged for the point after touchdown.

Fairbury JC Clips McCook

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP) — Quarterback Keith Richardson's passing arm put Fairbury Junior College on the road to a football victory over McCook Junior College Wednesday night and kept it there to the 26-12 conclusion.

Richardson passed 17 times and completed nine, seven of them to Gordon Benson. One of the Richardson-Benson passes brought Fairbury's second period touchdown.

What Richardson and Benson didn't do on aerials, Fullback Del Kotas did with running plays.

He tied the game at 6-all in the first period making a 79 yard run to the McCook 2-yard line, then plunging over for the marker.

Richardson was good for one of the Fairbury scores on a quarterback sneak.

McCook pulled a spectacular 70 yard pass play for its last touchdown with Quarterback John Ward shooting to Gary King who scored on a 48 yard run.

The score was 13-6 at the half in Fairbury's favor.

'Political Reporting Needs New Type Craftsman'

By Joan Krueger
Star Staff Writer

Describing the 1952 election campaign as an originally "simple contest which has become a brawl," Robert Lucas of the Denver Post said Wednesday that "the modern newspaper and the newspaper of the future must breed a different type of craftsman" to report the future complexities of politics.

Speaking at a University of Nebraska School of Journalism Convocation the editorial page editor of the Post, who believes newspapers have been "breaking their necks trying to balance space with all the statements and views of this campaign," said he thinks the answer to reporting modern politics lies in the following two points:

1. Primary decisions concerning news stories must be brought to the attention of someone who recognizes their significance; and

2. If the story is especially complicated and lacks clarity, it must be re-done by someone who knows and is capable of interpreting in that field.

'Parallel Lines'

The speaker attributed the "clouding" and "lies" in the 1952 election campaign partially to the fact that Gov. Stevenson and Gen. Eisenhower have "parallel lines in beliefs" and are "dominantly in personalities."

"It is my honest conviction," said Lucas, "that Stevenson would have made an admirable Republican candidate and that Ike would have gone very well under the Democratic banner."

He pointed to speeches of the two candidates where they advocated policies which were basically those of the opposing party, and told the journalists assembled at the convocation:

If you examine the points of disagreement of the two candidates, you will find they are basically ones of "degree, technicality, timing or concentration of authority."

The speaker nearly scoffed at charges that Eisenhower was a candidate of the Taft or "dinosaur wing" of the Republican party, or that Stevenson was a "Truman captive."

If it were true, he continued, Stevenson hardly would promise no "pork-barrelling while the economy is on the present basis," and Eisenhower would hardly assume his present stand toward unions.

He stressed that newspapermen in the future must be "better educated, subject to greater discipline and better paid."

Lucas also told the journalists that he believes the preference for Stevenson of newsmen reporting the election campaign, has penetrated in newspapers which editorially are supporting Gen. Eisenhower.

Hiram Club Members Shown Colored Slides

Colored slides taken in Europe the past summer by Miss Geneva and Miss Nevada Wheeler were shown to Hiram Club members and their wives at a Ladies Night program at the YWCA. Nearly 100 were in attendance.

Elmer Magee, past president, presided at the meeting, owing to the recent death of the president, Charles J. Miller. A minute of silent prayer and an invocation by Rev. Victor West were offered in Mr. Miller's memory.

Sound Policy Of Financing Basic—Raecke

FALLS CITY, Neb. — (Lincoln Star Special) — "Sound financing at all levels and in all subdivisions of government is highly important and in fact fundamental," Walter R. Raecke, Democratic candidate for governor, declared here Wednesday night.

Raecke addressed a three-county Democratic rally here.

He added that the tendency on the part of spending agencies and departments to lose "sight of the overall problem" places a "tremendous burden on the governor or other head of any governmental subdivision."

"In order to determine whether or not the funds of each department and agency are being properly administered, the governor should keep in touch with the situation by requiring reports to be made from time to time and by frequent conferences with the responsible persons in charge," Raecke continued.

He said that while "changes are inevitable, . . . we must be constantly on guard to see that new legislation fits into our general pattern of good government and to look at the picture of state government as a whole.

'Healthy' Trend Noted; More Businessmen Today Putting Feet On Desks

NEW YORK (INS)—The National Office Furniture Association Wednesday reported what it termed a "healthy" trend in office work habits: One out of every three businessmen put their feet on their desk at least once a day.

The office furniture group said this is a "healthy" trend because raising the feet to desk level relieves muscular tension and in turn diminishes mental anxiety over business.

Rowdies Blast Davey Lights With Shotgun

An automobile-full of rowdies engaged in a pre-Halloween stunt Tuesday night when they drove through Davey shooting out street lights with a shotgun.

No other damage was reported, according to the county sheriff.

Education Group Against Car Tax Change

The executive committee of the Nebraska State Education Association formulated a statement at a meeting in Columbus in opposition to the motor vehicle tax constitutional amendment. The committee explained that it could not speak for the membership but as a committee opposed it.

The statement of the committee read:

"The committee has full faith in the statements of those legislators and candidates for the Legislature who have said they will strive to insure the schools against immediate loss of revenue if the amendment passes.

"The committee recognizes the just claim of new car dealers to a tax plan that will not curtail sales for a fourth or a third of a year.

"It condemns tax evasion of all kinds, whether motor vehicle taxes or others abhorrent to good citizens. Along with educators everywhere, it advocates, and has long advocated, legislation with teeth enough to prevent this subversive practice.

"The committee submits that the problem of the new car dealers and the problem of motor vehicle tax evasion can be solved by a simple amendment providing that the tax on motor vehicles be paid when they are registered. The committee would gladly pledge co-operation in support of such a proposal.

"The present proposed amendment goes far beyond what is necessary to meet the need of the new car dealers, and to stop motor vehicle tax evasion. It provides for a basic and far-reaching change in the fundamental law of the state.

"Amendment No. 302 permits chipping away a part of the tax base which supports schools and other subdivisions of government. The assessed valuation of motor vehicles constitutes up to 25 per cent of that tax base in some school districts. Because this proposal permits narrowing the tax base supporting local government, the committee, while it cannot speak for all the members of the Association, opposes endorsement of Amendment No. 302."

VFW Head To Speak In York

YORK, Neb. (AP) — The national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, James W. Cothran of Bishopville, S.C., will speak at a Sunday luncheon meeting here for officers of the state VFW and its auxiliary.

The meeting is the regular quarterly session of the VFW Council of Administration in Nebraska. State Commander Frank J. Osentowski of Ord said the meeting is expected to draw 300 VFW and Auxiliary leaders.

Indochina Typhoon Toll May Reach 500

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—French authorities said Wednesday night the death toll from a typhoon and tidal wave which struck Phan Thiet, 100 miles east of Saigon, and along the South China Sea coast may reach 500. Thirty were known dead.

At least 2,000 straw huts were destroyed Monday night in the town of 20,000 population. The typhoon lasted six hours. The tidal wave was 90 feet high, witnesses said.

Many victims lived in sampans and other light boats in the harbor.

Many were swept out to sea, and officials said the actual death toll may never be known.

As far as was known all the dead were Indochinese.

Baby With Polio, Three Men Killed As Plane Crashes

WINSLOW, Ariz. (INS)—Three men and a 14-month-old boy suffering from polio were killed when their single engine plane crashed and burned shortly after the takeoff on a mercy flight from Winslow.

The plane, in which the tiny polio victim was to have been taken to Phoenix for treatment, burst into flames upon plunging to the ground.

Killed were Vincent Gurule; his son; Gerald Starr, 35, the pilot, a former Air Force flier, and Ernest Jack Ryan, an ambulance driver.

The victims were residents of Holbrook, Ariz. The three men were heads of families.

The Gurule infant was stricken last Monday. Ryan had brought the child to Winslow in an ambulance and was to have administered oxygen on the flight to Phoenix, where the infant was to have been treated at Memorial Hospital.

Next Week For Pair Arrested In Beating

PAPILLION, Neb. (INS)—Sarpy County authorities said that a hearing will be held next Wednesday for two Omahans arrested in connection with the beating and robbery of two men south of Omaha early Monday.

The two, arrested shortly after the incident and now free on bond, are Donald T. Conway, 19, and Albert J. Tesnohlidek, 18.

U.S. Trying To Stop Extortion By Reds Of U.S. PW Families

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postal officials said Wednesday they are trying to find ways to crack an extortion racket in which Chinese Communists seek to bilk the families of American servicemen held as prisoners of war in Korea.

SETTING FOOT on U.S. soil for the first time in 10 years, Sister Joan Marie Ryan (right), who was arrested and interned by the Chinese Communists for two years in Canton, China, is shown at Hickam Field, Hawaii, with her sister, U.S. Navy Nurse Lt. (jg) Margaret Ryan. The ex-prisoner is en route to Maryknoll mission in Ossining, N. Y. (International.)

The newest wrinkle in the "blood money" racket came to light when a spokesman for the Post Office Department disclosed that letters are being sent to the families of servicemen trying to get them to pay money in return for news about the war prisoners.

The spokesman told a reporter circulars and other publications are sent to the next of kin of prisoners offering to supply the families with news about the POWs if they pay a sum of $23 a year.

Less than two weeks ago, the Treasury Department said it thought it had beaten down a similar extortion racket, in which attempts were made to get money from Chinese in this country who have friends or relatives in China.

In that racket, a Treasury official said, the Communists threatened torture or death of persons in China unless a certain amount of money was sent to a specified person.

Millions of dollars were sent, he said.

State Cooperative Group To Meet In Lincoln

More than 300 members and employees of farmer co-operatives from eastern and central Nebraska will attend the district meeting of Consumers Co-operative Association at the Lincoln Hotel Friday, according to G. W. Erickson, Nebraska area supervisor.

Howard A. Cowden of Kansas City Mo., president and general manager of the CAA, will speak at the dinner meeting at the hotel at 6 p.m.

Afternoon sessions will include panel discussions of local co-op management problems and reports by members of the Kansas City staff on the past year's business.

Panel members are the following:

William Minarik, Dodge.
Orrville Hennings, Gresham.
Herman Effken, Firth.
Mrs. Alvin Behling, Auburn.
M. G. Lindburg, Polk.
Fred Hansen, Aurora.
Oscar Fullerton, Nelish.
Leonard Buresh, Lincoln.
Jay Person, Wauneta.
Haskell Tisen, Sioux City, Ia.

'No Place For National Police Force'

There is no place in America for a national police force, Elmer Scheele, chief deputy county attorney, said at a meeting of the South Street Temple Men's Club.

"The first line of defense against the criminal is the local law enforcement officer," he asserted, noting that heads of the local police and sheriff's offices and the State Patrol were FBI Academy graduates.

The heads of these offices, Scheele said, were trained in the latest methods of crime detection. He further stressed that it was important to keep separate the functions of investigating, prosecuting and judicial officers.

In charge of the meeting, held at the Cornhusker Hotel, was Stanley Sands, president.

Services Held For E. E. Ely, Former Nebraska Official

Funeral services for Edward E. Ely, 64, long time state official of Nebraska, were held in Whittier, Calif.

Mr. Ely was business manager of the Nebraska Hospital for Tuberculosis in Kearney for seven years, holding that position at the time of his retirement to his Whittier home in 1950. Prior to his activity at the state hospital, he held the post of adjutant at the Soldiers and Sailors Home in Grand Island and in Milford.

Mr. Ely was a native of Milford, where he was a graduate of its schools, a member of the city band, and a member of Blue River Lodge. He was known there as postmaster for 12 years and before that as assistant cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

War Veteran

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Ely attained the rank of battalion sergeant-major with the 355th Infantry. After the Armistice he remained with the army of occupation in Germany.

Funeral services were conducted by Chaplain Alonzo G. Cagle, of Compton, Calif., who was Mr. Ely's chaplain during his term of duty with the army of occupation.

Mr. Ely is survived by his wife, Vivien, of Whittier; a son, Edward Alvin, and granddaughter, Nancy Lynn, of Temple City, Calif., and a sister, Rhoda R. Mark, of Lincoln.

Loot Valued At $1,630 Is Missing From Auto

OMAHA (INS)—Petty thieves who break into parked cars ordinarily get very loot for their trouble.

But for the culprit who broke into the auto of William Gunzelman, of New Orleans, in an Omaha hotel parking lot, it was something else again.

Gunzelman told police that savings bonds, clothing and silverware valued at $1,630 were taken.

92% of the children had acute gingivitis when they came to Boys Town. Chlorodent brought a "striking reduction"!

How Chlorodent—in 60 days—improved the unhealthy mouths of 158 children from underprivileged homes

In the first major test of chlorophyll* toothpaste, dentists at famous Boys Town discovered that Chlorodent brings a "striking" improvement in mouth health. This dramatic test on acute gingivitis provides documented proof that Chlorodent can bring healthier mouths to millions!

In just two months, 78.6% of the boys using Chlorodent showed dramatic improvement in their mouth health. It was more than twice as effective as the fine white control toothpaste.

These findings will soon be published in a leading dental journal.

Chlorodent also destroys mouth odors, keeps teeth cleanest, fights tooth decay. (If mouth troubles persist—see your dentist.)

Chlorodent gives you up to 5 times more active chlorophyll. Try it today. Find out why Chlorodent is the world's largest-selling chlorophyll dentifrice!

Irrigation Boosts Corn Yield To 136 Bushels Per Acre

HARDY, Neb.—Irrigation increased the corn yield by 111 bushels per acre on the Bostwick Irrigation Development farm near here this year.

Paul E. Fishbach, district extension irrigation engineer with the University of Nebraska, said the farm produced a top yield of 136 bushels per acre.

The yield was produced on land which had been in sweet clover in 1950 and planted to corn in 1951. The plot had been sprayed with benzene hexachloride for rootworm control and had 10 tons of chicken manure applied in the spring and 45 pounds of nitrogen per acre as a side dressing. The corn was irrigated twice—from July 14 to July 24 and from August 4 to Aug. 15. Only about five inches of rain fell between July 1 and harvest time—considerably below normal. The corn was planted May 5.

Mr. Fischbach said that when dryland and irrigated corn yields on soil of like fertility were compared there was an increase of 76 bushels per acre. But irrigation allowed an application of more nitrogen, giving still a greater boost to the corn.

Nitrogen Aid

The corn yield on land which was leveled in the spring of 1952 and was plowed out of alfalfa produced 116 bushels per acre with the aid of 45 pounds of available nitrogen. Land plowed out of sweet clover in 1951, leveled in 1952 and had 45 pounds of nitrogen as a side dressing produced 86 bushels per acre.

Land which was plowed out of sweet clover in 1951, leveled last spring and had no nitrogen added, gave only 51 bushels per acre. Dryland corn on land plowed out of alfalfa last spring, leveled and had an application of 45 pounds of nitrogen as a side dressing produced only 25 bushels per acre.

Land plowed out of alfalfa, even tho it was leveled last spring, gave an increase yield equivalent to that which would have been produced by adding 90 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

The farm is operated by Willard Stenson. The land was used this year as a demonstration farm by agricultural agencies to show what is possible with irrigation.

Saint To Be Honored

GOA, Portuguese India (AP)—Officials here are busy readying extra facilities for the half million pilgrims expected when the month-long fourth centenary of the death of St. Francis Xavier starts.

Pilgrims from throughout the world, including an estimated 200,000 non-Catholics, will attend centenary festivities, officials said. The body of the saint lies encased in a silver casket studded with precious stones at the Basilica de Bom Jesus at Old Goa, former state capital.

Tempers Cooling Off In Latest Gardner-Sinatra Tiff

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Tempers cooled Wednesday in the Ava Gardner-Frank Sinatra "Battle of Palm Springs" and a spokesman for gorgeous Ava said the North Carolina beauty is ready to discuss an armistice.

Ava Gardner

That is not to say shapely Miss Gardner is ready to forgive completely the skinny crooner for what she termed "his terrible behavior" last week-end at the couple's palatial Palm Springs home.

Explosive Frankie dramatically ordered Ava to pack her clothes and leave their home.

Hollywood rumored that a divorce was impending following the violent outburst, with Lana Turner on the sidelines. Sinatra said after the argument:

"This is the end. I can't take any more. This is the second time she walked out on me."

Ava characteristically has had little to say, but when asked if she had retained an attorney, she replied:

"Why should I. I don't have any need for one."

Miss Gardner told friends "we've had these tiffs before." Her attitude was interpreted by people who know her best to mean that she and the famed crooner will kiss and make up again. Sinatra had nothing new to say.

Sinatra ordered his actress-wife out of their home early last Sunday when he found Lana Turner and actor's agent Benton Cole there.

An informant close to Ava, said, however, that her leave-taking actually was inspired by what amounted to a heave-ho from Frankie.

The source reported that upon his arrival Frankie demanded of Ava's guests:

"What are you doing here?"

He assertedly was told Lana and Cole were on the premises at the invitation of Ava.

As the story goes, Miss Gardner then drove up and came into the house, whereupon words between her and Frankie became so hot and heavy that Lana and Cole left.

Lana, who had forgotten something, returned afterward to retrieve the item—and found a police car parked in front of the house.

Lana and Cole were said to have heard Frankie scream to the police:

"Get her out of here! Get her out!"

Presumably, he was referring to his bride of less than a year.

Gunmen Get $52,000 In Pawn Shop Holdup

CHICAGO (AP) —Four gunmen Wednesday staged a daylight holdup of a North Side pawn shop, the Broadway Loan Bank, seizing $52,000 in cash and jewelry.

Ray Finnerman, 30, the manager, and two employees, and three customers, were bound with adhesive tape and forced to lie on the floor during the holdup.

The robbers scooped up all the cash and jewelry in the vault and swept the contents of the showcases into three pieces of luggage.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Yesterday's Answer

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

One of my neighbors turned on his television last night and didn't get a campaign speech. He said, "What do you know . . . I must have Europe!"

☆ ☆ ☆

All I know is a card came up on my screen that read: "Instead of the old movie usually scheduled for this time you will hear the old baloney scheduled for this month."

And the last few days are going to be tough . . . the candidates won't get a chance to wipe off their makeup while we're getting a chance to make up our minds on who to wipe off.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X B
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Selling Pressure Hits Stock Mart

NEW YORK . .—The stock market declined substantially Wednesday to the lowest point in the current reaction.

Oils got a lot of the fall as did the railroads, coppers, motors, chemicals, aircrafts, radio-television, steels, and a long list of miscellaneous issues.

The cause for the fall couldn't be pinpointed in Wall Street, but the coal strike with its paralyzing effect on railroads and other industries brought on an attack of jitters.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined $1.10 at $103.60. That is the lowest point for the average since the current reaction started in early August.

Volume built up to 1,160,000 shares as compared with 990,000 shares traded Tuesday.

Lower were Socony-Vacuum off ½ at 33⅛, General Motors off ⅞ at 58¼, International Harvester off ⅜ at 29⅞, Seaboard Railroad off 1½ at 107, Atlantic Coast Line 1½ at 104½, Baltimore & Ohio ⅝ at 20⅜, Texas Co. 1⅜ at 50⅜, Cities Service 1¼ at 89¾, Texas Pacific Land Trust 2½ at 131⅜, Amerada Petroleum 4 at 190, Westinghouse Electric 1⅛ at 40¼, Chrysler 1⅜ at 80½, and Zenith Radio 1⅝ at 82⅝.

Corporate bonds were mixed.

Grain Trade Slips; Buyers Cautious

CHICAGO (AP) — Buyers developed a very shy attitude toward grains on the Board of Trade Wednesday, taking offerings only on a scale down. The result was an easy market with losses running as high as 3 cents in soybeans.

Selling pressure could not be called heavy. Much of its represented routine hedging in corn and soybeans, plus some quick turn profit-taking in wheat. However, the market gave a discouraging performance for the bulls because of its inability to rally at any time.

Wheat closed 1⅜-1⅝ lower, corn 1⅜-1⅝ lower, oats ⅞-1¼ lower, rye 1½-2⅝ lower, corn 1¾ to 3 cents lower and lard 7 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The slump carried corn and soybeans below their closing prices of last week but other cereals still had small gains.

Dry weather continued in the southwestern winter wheat belt. This item lost some of its impact on the market, however, particularly in view of the failure of export business to expand. Some traders expressed surprise at the small export and flour business in view of the new crop outlook.

Corn arrivals here and at other markets in futures. Some reports to local houses said were quite heavy, resulting in mark-downs for the cash grain and a good deal of hedging that, even though crib space is large it is not large enough in some areas to handle the bumper crop. Thus, some corn will have to be sold, it was said.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK. (AP)—The bond market closed thoroughly mixed Wednesday after a firm start.

U. S. government bonds were irregularly higher.

Foreign liens were extremely quiet.

Volume slipped sharply on the "big board," to $2,922,000 par value from $3,343,000 Tuesday. High-grade obligations were firm most of the day in response to the unsteady stock market. However, as stock market declines deepened, bond traders began hedging and all sections of the corporate list turned erratic.

Capital Airlines 4s climbed a point at 97, while American Airlines 3s lost an equal amount at 91.

Commonwealth Edison 2¾s rose a point at 92, but Houston Light & Power 3¼s dipped a point at 125.

WSB Coal Pay Ruling Is Rapped

Associates Are Hit By Labor Members

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor members of the Wage Stabilization Board charged Wednesday that the board "spent more time finding ways to deny than to approve" the $1.90 a day wage increase negotiated by John L. Lewis.

Public and industry members of the WSB trimmed that $1.90 by 40 cents, leading to an immediate nation-wide soft coal strike, the effects of which are already spreading to other industries. The public and industry members said the full $1.90 would violate government controls designed to curb inflation.

The labor members of the tripartite board severely criticized their associates and said the majority decision in effect precipitated the strike. They said: "It is not this board's job to create disputes."

OK Possible

Issuing their dissenting opinion in the controversial case, the six labor members said the record of past WSB action clearly made approval of the full amount possible. The main burden of their argument was that miners today do not get three "fringe" benefits in effect in many other industries. These are paid vacations, paid holidays and higher shift differentials.

Strong criticism of Lewis' refusal to accept the wage board decision came meanwhile from Rep. Lucas (D-Tex), member of the House Labor Committee.

Lucas issued a statement declaring that Lewis "for years accepted all the privileges accorded him under the law and refused to bear a portion of the responsibility."

Lewis' remarks about the wage board decision are "the irresponsible ravings of a disgruntled windbag," Lucas said.

"His demagogic statement about taking milk away from miners' children typifies the kind of selfish thinking which must be corraled," Lucas said.

"He says nothing about the babies all over the country who will be cold for lack of fuel this winter."

Fleeing Driver Stopped After 159-Mile Chase

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska Safety patrolman pursued a fleeing car 159 miles over Panhandle roads in an effort to halt a driver involved in three accidents.

Finally they arrested Russell Subbs, Pine Bluffs, Wyo., in Sidney and served him with a summons charging him with being drunk while driving an automobile.

The Patrol gave this account of the chase:

The first accident involved a car in which James Allen of Alliance and Betty Pierce, 23, of Bridgeport were riding.

Ran Into Ditch

Allen stopped a passing car and chased the car involved in the accident. About six miles farther on the fleeing driver made a sharp turn and ran into a ditch, knocking both occupants unconscious.

Allen then returned to the scene of the first accident and waited for the Patrol, but in the meantime the occupants of the ditched car regained consciousness and continued their flight.

A mile and a half south of Dalton the car stopped to help Wesley E. Dunn of Lisco change a flat tire and backed into the front of the Dunn car doing about $100 damage.

Stella Housewife Ends Ten-Month Stay In Hospital

OMAHA (AP) — Mrs. Dorothy Shefferd, 21-year-old Stella, Neb., housewife, has ended a 10-month stay in University Hospital here.

She hopes it also has ended a streak of bad luck.

Even before a kitchen stove exploded last December severely burning Mrs. Shefferd, the Stella woman had a record of injuries suffered in several auto accidents that included a broken back.

In the explosion that sent her to University Hospital, doctors said Mrs. Shefferd had burns over 65 per cent of her body. They said 50 per cent burns usually are fatal.

An ambulance rushing her to the hospital after the blast was hit by a car, causing injury to one of her arms.

For some time she received regular blood transfusions and weekly skin grafting operations.

—Manila Spared—

Philippines Devastated By Typhoon

At Least 37 Killed; Many Towns Smashed

MANILA (AP)—A typhoon described as the worst in the long history of the Central Philippines killed at least 37 persons Wednesday, smashed towns and cities and left millions in property damage.

So devastating was the storm that the Philippine Red Cross announced it was mobilizing all its resources for the relief of stricken areas.

The death toll was expected to mount as fresh reports filtered in from central islands blacked out by the 100-mile winds which flattened communication lines and wiped out crops.

Manila was spared the big blow. The typhoon curled out into the South China Sea 95 miles southwest of The Philippines capital.

All the first casualties reported came from the battered southeast tip of Luzon, the main island.

At Sorsogon, 230 miles southeast of Manila, the military commander reported 21 bodies had been recovered in that area.

8 Prospects Interested In Nebraska Plant Sites

Several months work faces the Nebraska Resources Division in providing information to industrial concerns interested in sites in the state for their plants, C. V. Price, chief of the division, said Wednesday.

The interest was developed, Price said, as the result of a special section Nebraskans recently placed in the Sunday edition of the New York Times. Price has spent the last three weeks in the east contacting firms which made inquiries and plans to return in about six weeks for another follow-up as a result of the advertising.

There are eight definite prospects interested in an industrial location in Nebraska, out of about 75 contacts developed, Price said. Five of the eight are in the needle trades; one is a tobacco manufacturer.

Price said he had inquiries from a foreign investor's group, and from a foreign manufacturer seeking a location for an assembly plant.

There was a surprisingly large number of inquiries from technicians seeking a good place in which to live, rear a family and work, Price reported.

Many questions asked concerned the type of labor available in Nebraska.

In addition to inquiries received directly by Price while in New York or at his office here, the newspaper publishing the supplement received many requests for information. There were many requests for additional copies of the supplement, some for as many as a hundred.

Adult Class To Hear 2 Book Reviews

Dr. A. T. Anderson, University of Nebraska history professor, and Norma Kidd Green will review two books at a meeting of the International Affairs class of the Adult Education Department of the Lincoln Public Schools.

The class will meet Friday at 9:30 a.m. at the City Library.

Dr. Anderson will review "The Rise of Russia in Asia" by D. J. Dallin. Mrs. Green will discuss the book, "My Forty Years Fight for Korea," by Louise Yim, the representative to the United Nations from the Republic of Korea

Pravda Protests

LONDON (AP)—Pravda, the official Communist party newspaper in Moscow, said Wednesday the Mau Mau violence in Kenya, British colony in East Africa, is caused by "the merciless exploitation of the people by the British imperialists." Moscow Radio carried the comment.

Charge Of Dealing With Iowa-Grown Marijuana Faces 2

DES MOINES (AP)—Two men from Pittsburgh, Pa., charged with dealing in Iowa-grown marijuana have been held to the federal grand jury here on bond of $5,000 each.

Richard Mayfair, 27, and Joseph Tarquota, 52, waived preliminary hearings when arraigned Tuesday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Vernon U. Sigler. They were held in Polk County jail in lieu of bond.

Authorities hinted that arrest of the two men may lead to further disclosures of a widespread marijuana ring.

One of the two charges against Mayfair and Tarquota accused them of planting several plots of the weed in Iowa and "agreeing to harvest and convert it to the proper condition for smoking."
